1 May the Divine Breath of the Spirit of God guide you, and do not fear, because the greater the battle, you must know, the greater will be the victory.

2 Rise, My child, beyond appearances, feelings, thoughts and sensations.

3 I offer My Consciousness and Existence for each one of My children so that they may recognize in themselves the Virtues and Gifts of God.

4 O Sacred Father, heal the Sacred Mother Earth, Who suffers the consequences of Her children, both on earth and in the oceans.

5 Rise to where your consciousness can express truth and peace, unity with the Creator and with life.

6 With the consciousness and the love of those who awaken in this time, I can make a New Humanity emerge.

7 Behold the Mother of the sick of spirit and body, of those who are not helped and of those who are forgotten in the streets of this world.

8 Draw close to Me, to feel My Grace and the renewing faith that I can give to your soul.

9 To rise is to be able to feel one with the Creator Himself, to be aware of His Presence in oneself and in all things.

10 Behold the Radiant Sun of God, the Woman Clothed with the Sun, the one who announces the arrival of a new and expected time.

11 Love always positions you in the place where you should be so that, in this sense, you may learn to overcome your own disagreements.

12 When your heart no longer knows what to do, child, keep your spirit in the certainty of the Presence of God and simply offer the Father your emptiness, your silence.

13 My Feet of Mother and Pilgrim will always mark the rhythm of your steps until they hand you to the Heart of the Heavenly Father.

14 With the divine Rosary in My Hands, I come from Heaven to reveal to you a simple mystery in which the Power of God hides. Pray and you will be free.

15 The greatest and most infinite mysteries are unveiled to the poor of heart.

16 Contemplate who you are and the power of union of your spirit with the Spirit of God, and bring an end to that which weakens and distracts you from your path.

17 Truly pray and you will live your own union with God, your own inner contact that will raise you to the Heavens even if your feet are on Earth.

18 Blessed be those who surrender to the Lord and trust in the call of Christ, of the King of the Universe!

19 Within you there is a potential to overcome temptations, humiliations, sorrows, surrenders and challenges.

20 It is the moment for the religions to unite to pray with the heart for One God.

21 Just as you see the chaos foreseen in the Apocalypse be fulfilled, you will also see the final triumph of God in the radiance of His Son.

22 Blessed be the humble of heart, for they will appear written in the Holy Books of God, as part of this experience of redemption and mercy!

23 Nothing is lost, not even for the most sinful soul, when it surrenders, humbles itself and opens in a heartfelt way before the Father.

24 I am the Mother of nature, the Mother that regenerates the life of the spirit and of matter.

25 May the sacrifice of the Lamb of God be re-experienced today for the forgiveness of sins and the establishment of the Father's Grace in all hearts.

26 Do not remain in the weariness or in the agony, but rather drink of the divine Chalice that seems to offer you pain but, in reality, offers you infinite Love.

27 As Mother of the families, I come with my Mantle of Light to protect all the beings that integrate a family.

28 My Words will be strength for the simple, a shield for the peacemakers, encouragement for the humble, and victory for the divested of self.
