DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED DURING THE JOURNEY FROM THE CITY OF CUENCA TO GUAYAQUIL, ECUADOR, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

The Musical Note of the Heart

My dear children:

Today let the musical note of the heart be played, the note that resonates in the spaces of this world when the soul feels the Love of God within itself.

Today let the musical note of the heart be played, so that this world may be redeemed and so that the hosts of Light of the Father may open the doors of the Heavens.

Today let the musical note of the heart be played, the musical note that vibrates in the subtle worlds and attracts the Mercy of God to Earth.

Today let the musical note of the heart be played, so that voices may be ignited by the Holy Spirit and this humanity may again receive the powerful current of Divine Healing.

Today let hearts play the musical note of love, so that it may expand in devotion and light throughout all corners of the Earth.

Let the musical note of your hearts reaffirm, on this day, the victory of My Son on Earth, and may your souls enter into the celestial choirs to confirm the Plan of the Creator within this grieving humanity.

Today let the musical note of your hearts light up with the spirit of joy, the devotion to all that is sacred and the faith that strengthens consciousnesses.

Children, on this very special day of elevation of the human consciousness, I ask you: within your voices and instruments, let the musical note of the heart vibrate, because this very deep note in our souls will open the doors to Heaven so that Grace, redemption and healing may be established in humanity.

Let the musical note of your hearts revere Creation and all the Kingdoms of Nature, from the Mineral Kingdom to the Angelic Kingdom.

Today, let all of your voices be one, to gestate sacred unity between souls and God on Earth.

From Ecuador, as the Mother of the Andes and of all the singers of God, I bless you in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

May this sacred mission motivate you to live the changes.

Who blesses you,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
