Clamor to God for Humanity

On September 19, 2022, Saint Joseph said:

"In the core of your beings, emit a cry for those who are most in need, for those who suffer, for those who agonize. Within you, where you can find the Heart of God, say a prayer for humanity, for the Kingdoms of Nature. I hear you, God hears you."

Lord and God of Mercy,
Who has loved humanity from the beginning of Creation, today contemplate the sincerity of Your Children, and, by the Infinite Love that You stored in their hearts, may Divine Hope again be ignited.

Grant an opportunity, Lord, to the beings that, in their imperfection, seek Your Truth.

Grant, Lord, in the silence of the heart, a true cry for the transformation of beings
so that, through this cry,
Your Truth may emerge,
Your Mercy may descend,
Your Love may be renewed,
Your Grace may be established,
Your Thought may be a reality.

Amen.
