Devotional for Peace and the End of Wars

On December 18, 2022, Saint Joseph said:

"Learn to pray for peace and live at peace, because in this way, children, when agony and chaos are no longer just within beings, but also outside of them and in all directions, the peace-makers must emerge, the Kingdom must emerge within those who have allowed themselves to be a dwelling place for the Heart of God. (...)

I ask you to accompany Me in a prayer for peace and for the end of wars, praying a Devotional that I will transmit to you today. (...) With this simple prayer, you will accompany My Chaste Heart every Friday, crying out so that peace may be established, so that wars may end within and outside of your beings, so that the men and women of this world may finally manifest who they really are."

Union bead

So that peace may be established on Earth
and within beings,
Saint Joseph, intercede for the end of wars.

Amen.

Saint Joseph, we cry out to You,
intercede for the abandoned women.

For the Peace that springs from the Heart of Christ,
Saint Joseph, we cry out to You,
intercede for those who are sick amidst wars.

Fourth decade

For the Peace that springs from Your Chaste Heart,
Saint Joseph, we cry out to You,
intercede for those who try to flee from wars,
so that they may achieve peace.

Fifth decade

For the Peace that is born from the Holy Spirit of God,
Saint Joseph, we cry out to You,
intercede for all souls that live in wars,
so that peace may be established,
so that the human heart may be healed,
so that the Kingdom may be manifested, so that wars may make room for the Love of God.

Final prayer
(three times)

Saint Joseph, we cry out to You,
in the name of all of humanity,
may the Kingdom of God be established,
may wars end within and outside of beings,
may peace reign within us and in this world.

Amen.
