APPARITION OF THE GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS ON THE THIRD DAY OF INSTRUCTION, DURING SACRED WEEK, IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

I do not have much time left before I return to the world, for that reason I am coming these days, because my Father sends Me to the world to be among those of Mine and prepare them for that moment that is not very far away.

In today's Gospel, you saw represented what I said more than two thousand years ago, which is a reality for today's times.

For this reason, yesterday, I had you consciously enter the Kingdom of My Father so that your souls could have an experience and, from that experience, you could gather a treasure, which is a result of the Gifts of God that you will need in this time to live that which will come.

It is thus that the Universe patiently weaves the Plan of God on Earth, integrated by each one of its souls that were self-summoned to be here, as many souls were throughout time, at different moments in the history of humanity, through the Apparitions of the Most Holy Mother of God and the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

But in this time and in this hour, I come for everyone, and here there is no religion or belief prevailing because today I remind you once again that you are part of the Source and all come from that non-material Source that originated life in the universe after the planets, stars and suns were created.

This way you can understand, companions, how extensive the history of each one of you is, within this Universal Creation and that, as happened yesterday, everyone was able to recognize that they are more than a human being or a consciousness that thinks and contemplates.

It is through the value that essences can give that I will avail to move forward with My Return to the world.

For this reason, I come for everyone, Christians and non-Christians, believers and non-believers, I come for everyone. All those who were attentive to My Words yesterday received many Graces that will begin to descend into your lives as the Father has thought it.

Those Graces that you will receive will also benefit your loved ones and, as a result, the rest of humanity. When humanity recognizes that it is one family, it will be ready to again receive me; when there are no longer differences, prestige or protagonism within any of you, because all are equal in the eyes of God and God expects that each one of His children may also be able to recognize what He sees and what He feels.

In this preparation, which I have made today through these words, elevate your consciousness toward My Thought; and from My divine and universal Thought, receive the new impulses and decrees that will shape your lives according to the model that God expects for these times. May everyone do their part, just as the Universe accomplishes its higher part.

Recognizing these instructions, surrendered to the Love of God, let us further open the doors of the Universe so that, for a moment, you may have the vision and the awareness of the reason why you are here and are called by name to at this time receive the spiritual impulses of the Redeemer.

At this moment, Our Lord Jesus Christ, with His Hands raised up to Heaven, opens the doors to other Universes, where humanity never reached, but that today for the first time reaches those Universes through the Redeemer.

Let us accompany this spiritual movement of Our Lord through our connection and contact with Him, placing all our attention upon what He is doing so that we may continue to be filled with everything He wants to reveal and show us.

Our Lord said at this moment:

Through My Words, I sanctify you so that your consciousnesses may be within the necessary vibration and you may enter into the universal wisdom that holds the answer for each of your lives, as well as the knowledge of each of your lives.

See above you the Universe and the great vault of the Milky Way. Recognize the different nebulae and solar systems, and feel yourselves inside the vast Universe of God. And, in this way, awaken in your hearts the memory of your origins, just as you remembered it yesterday.

Realize, then, that it is not impossible to do so if you are truly united with Me and wholeheartedly trust that which I am revealing to you.

Within the entire Universe that governs and accompanies you, focus your attention upon the blue nebula that I am showing you, and see how within it there is life, and how different stars shine within that nebula, emanating wisdom to the Universe.

Following the sound of this melody, raise your consciousness a little more, emptying yourself completely so that you may be filled with what truly exists in the Universe.

Following in My footsteps, let us enter that space of light within that blue nebula. See your beings illuminated by that blue light and how, from the center of your chests, small lights ignite that spring from your hearts, which are the hearts of your origin.

In front of you, within that blue nebula, identify fourteen stars that, in perfect alignment, contemplate each one of you.

You are standing before your Fathers of the Origins, the Father that the Universe granted you so that you could have life, and in that void that you must exercise, at this moment, feeling yourselves filled and replete by the presence of those stars of light, and ask yourself inwardly: Who am I? Why am I here, facing my origin?

And Christ tells us to remember, not with pain, but rather with joy, because the errors of the material Universe are being corrected by the consecration of your lives and your filiation with God.

Christ says:

Behind those fourteen stars of light, see a powerful golden Light. It is the emanation of Adonai, without any form, but in a sublime state of consciousness and repeat inwardly: Adonai, Adonai, Adonai.

And the Celestial Father, opening His Arms with His golden emanation of Light, embraces all present with His omnipotence, and in that emptiness, where there is no personal will, seeming or wanting, we are filled by His Presence.

Christ says:

Here are the Fathers of your Origins in the Presence of Adonai, they are the Fathers of Orion. Remember and feel their love, silent and profound love. And see how that light still emerges from your chests which unites you with each of the Father, who know your origin and your emergence from the Source.

And now we are surrounded by those fourteen Stars of Light, Christ in the center, above us the Consciousness of Adonai and around us we feel how the Universe vibrates, like an elevated melody that brings us streams of Light and impulses of Light to our consciousnesses.

We are facing what we once were; we are facing the truth that the Heart of the Redeemer reveals to us today.

Above those fourteen Stars that surround us, which are the essences of our Fathers, we see languages of fire. And the fourteen non-material Gifts of the Holy Spirit are revealed to us:

- The Science of Understanding
- The Spirit of Truth
- The Strength of the Light
- Immeasurable Love
- Eternal Selflessness
- Divine Wisdom
- Spiritual Healing
- Inner Life
- Cosmic Knowledge
- Transmutation
- The Solidity of the Soul
- Unconditional Grace
- Divine Intelligence

- Inner Reconciliation

And Christ says:

Now that you know you were never alone and that God always filled you with His Graces, go back to what you truly are so that this material Universe and even this planet may fulfill the purpose that they have in Creation, and thus consciousnesses may be raised towards their true spiritual condition, becoming aware of their mission and purpose.

Orion has been the site of many stories. That is why it approaches you in the presence of the fourteen Fathers of the Origins, the same Fathers that Abraham knew, as well as many other patriarchs.

May all this help you internalize your lives so that you are aligned with the Purpose. And after this moment that the entire planet is experiencing, that many more hearts aspire to reach the truth, beyond the religiosity of life, entering into the abundant Knowledge of God that is expressed in all His dwelling places.

Today you are facing one of those dwellings, which has witnessed many events, but which today, Orion expresses one of the most important wisdom for this material Universe. That impulse comes to you directly, through My Presence, so that you may continue to affirm what you truly are and the reason why you are here, at this planetary moment, not to live the things of the world, but rather to live that which is in Heaven, in the Universe, and that for a long time continues vibrating and pulsating in its dome.

Recognize the arrival of those who come to your aid and you will be on the path of peace.

Bringing our consciousnesses to this place, we are now with Christ in front of this altar so that we can perceive the difference of how to achieve a deeper contact with everything that is in the Sublime Spheres.

My Father asks Me to do all of this for one main reason: so that the talents awaken in each of you, through the Source, that is called "lineages." Now, after this moment, everyone is prepared to know their lineage that, in My Name, must contribute to and serve humanity in the building of the New Humanity so that healing may be established, forgiveness may redeem you and Love may elevate you to the Truth.

In honor of the Fathers of the Origins, today we will celebrate, because God granted you the Grace of becoming aware of Truth so that each day you are more aware, open and available to find the meaning and the answer for being here today.

Thus, I pray, all the time, so that My friends may achieve that Truth because the Truth will set you free.

Our Lord is asking for a veil of a helper and the ring of a helper.

So that you understand, companions, how important your mission is on Earth before I give myself in Body and Blood for you, I give you My Love through consecration.

Bring anointing oil and water to bless here to Me also.

The apostles and the holy women knew this truth that you know today, and during the three years of My Public Life, the apostles and the holy women were guards on the inner planes of that knowledge of the Universe. It is for this reason that My apostles and My holy women achieved freedom through Truth.

Today I bless these elements, which I have asked to be brought to My altar, to demonstrate My gratitude and trust in those who persevere and surrender to My Eucharistic Body, as well as in the Sacraments and in daily prayer.

These elements are a means of conversion, as well as each one of the sacred elements that you carry with you, so that I may bless them at this time.

In humility, hold your items in your hands, whether they are rosaries, medallions, crosses or anything else that you carry. But, especially, place your hearts, so that I may accept them.

I waited ten years for this moment, to consecrate this soul for a deeper service to My Heart, so that the Work of My Mercy may be accomplished throughout the world. I also waited until this moment so that each one of you, according to your learning and schools could know the revelation of this truth that I brought you today, which at the end of this meeting, My beloved Mother Maria Shimani will explain to you, because of the gift that I will give to her so that she can pronounce it.

Through this consecration of the Body and Blood of Christ, the Lord will bless the elements that you are offering so that they may be a means of Grace for all, of conversion and of light for all.

At this moment, in which Divine Mercy descends to the Earth, through the Love and Compassion of your Lord, offer me at least one soul, a person who comes to your consciousness and needs of My help at this moment, be they a healthy or sick person.

"Before this sacred knowledge that fills you, and that benefits humanity in the act of forgiveness and reconciliation, Adonai, like more than two thousand years ago, but today gathered with many followers of Mine, I ask You, in the name of Your children and the infinite and cosmic Love that You have for each one of them, that you bless these elements that are offered, so that You, Father, are more present in the lives of each one of Your children, so that they may feel Your blessing and Love beyond what happens. "

"For this reason, today I offer you this bread so that it may be blessed by You and become the Glorious Body of Christ."

For this reason, I again say to you: "Take it and eat it, for this is My Body that to this day is given for the forgiveness of sins."

We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.

We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.

We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.

Amen.

"I raise this Chalice, Lord, so that it may also be blessed by You and so that it may become the Blood of Christ, and thus the breath of Your Spirit may be in the hearts of the Earth."

So today I say to you again: "Take it and drink it, for this is the Chalice of My Blood, the Blood of the New Covenant, which is poured out by your Redeemer for the remission of faults. Do this in remembrance of Me."

*We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.
We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.
We praise You, Lord, and we bless You.
Amen.*

United with our Redeemer, we pray the prayer that He lovingly taught us.

Our Father (in Spanish).

Our father (in English).

May the Peace of Christ descend to Earth.

Thank you, Lord, for all that you give us. In this meeting, we honor you, Lord.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Comments of Mother María Shimani de Montserrat:

We are going to try and bring everybody closer to an ancient story of the Universe, and we are simply going to tell this story as if we were in a meeting with many children that need to understand a very broad reality, and for this reason, simplicity will be the key to your understanding.

A long, long time ago, when God thought about what He wanted for His Creation, He multiplied all His Attributes and felt the need that material creatures, that could live the experience of Love and Unity, should hold in the heart of their race each one of His Attributes.

So He appointed His archangels to build beautiful races, lovely creatures that could represent His Attributes in the material Universe.

One of these races was Orion, a race with Blue Hearts, where the profound Love of the Universe was held.

But, because of those things that happened among the angels, a long time ago; one of them, who did not know how to treasure God's Love and understand what God wanted to accomplish, fell prey to his own ignorance and wanted to destroy the Creation of Our Lord, the Eternal Father. And he went to seek in the Universe one of God's greatest Creations, the Orion race. And he wanted to conquer, through his deceptions, the Blue Heart of that race that held the deepest Love of God.

But the Blue Heart of Orion, after living many trials through that love he kept in his heart, was able to survive and learn what never again, in the Universe, should happen.

Orion had 14 Fathers, the wisest of the Orion race, who "guarded" Creation for a long time, and in that story, it is told that those 14 Fathers perished at the hands of the deceiver, offering their lives to save the Orion race, and today they shine like 14 blue stars, like the Heart of Orion, so that in the Universe it is always remembered that the Love of God's Heart will always triumph because that is His Will.

All of us, on this planet Earth, one day had something to do with that Blue Heart of God. It is a story that each one of us will have to discover because as you enter more into the Heart of God, you will find that blue color that guides your way home.

Thank you, Lord, for all that you give us!

And united to You, King of the Universe, in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Stay with God, everyone.
