WEEKLY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED AT THE LIGHT-NUCLEUS SACRED HOUSE OF MARY, MOTHER OF SÃO PAULO, SÃO PAULO, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Until the last lost soul comes to My Heart, I will say to you: I Am thirsty!

Until the last Kingdom of Nature comes to My Heart, I will say to you: I Am thirsty!

Until the last species and element of life is redeemed, I will say to you: I Am thirsty!

Until redemption reaches the deepest spaces of beings, of the Kingdoms and of all planetary consciousness, I will say to you: I Am thirsty!

Until wars end and suffering ceases to be in the human heart, and the weapons are silenced, I will say to you: I Am thirsty!

Because I feel in My Heart the suffering of the children of My Father. I feel in My Heart the suffering of nature and the silent cry of the Earth.

My Heart is shaking at the quakes of the planet.

My Heart suffers the imbalances of the world.

And even if My Eyes contemplate all the universes and all of Creation, the Earth beats within Me, as a living part of My Consciousness. For this reason, I remain here. Because until My Eyes contemplate the concretion of the Plans of My Father, I will be on the planet, today in Spirit, but then face to face, in Body, Soul and Divinity.

I will no longer come to the world only for humanity, but also for all of Creation.

I will no longer be with My Arms open as in the shape of a cross, but rather with My Arms open in redemption, together with those who want to accompany Me.

I will no longer be alone. There will be no loneliness in My Spirit, because I will awaken those who will continue with Me and who will quench My thirst through their surrender.

The Plan of My Father is not consummated yet; therefore, I invite you not to give up, not to close the doors of the Kingdom of the Heavens within you or in the sacred spaces of the planet.

It is not the time to submerge in the tendencies of the world. It is not the time to close your eyes to the suffering of humanity, of the Earth, of the Kingdoms.

It is time to pray, to elevate your eyes and hearts to God, to elevate your word and your silence, surrender, renunciation, peace and anguishes; to offer everything, everything that you are, that you live, that you experience. May everything be fruit and merits for the redemption of souls, because until the last soul comes to Me, you will hear the echo of My Voice, saying to you: I Am thirsty!

Your Master and Lord,

Christ Jesus
