

Friday, August 15, 2025

WEEKLY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED AT THE LIGHT-NUCLEUS SACRED HOUSE OF MARY, MOTHER OF SÃO PAULO, SÃO PAULO, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Let those who aspire to follow My footsteps come to Me, though they are stuck in the uncertainties and confusions of these times.

Let them come to Me in prayer, as a friend approaches a friend, as a sheep approaches its shepherd, as a child approaches their father.

Let them come to Me as they are, just as they are, with their imperfect hearts, yet with their spirits willing to correct that which no longer fits a disciple of My Spirit.

Let them come to Me even in the midst of doubts.

Let them come to Me even though they are afraid.

As they reach My Feet, they will understand that I Am the Lord of Love and Mercy, I Am the One who gives His life for His own, the One who grants life to those who are losing their spiritual breath. I Am the One who transforms and renews all things. Therefore, simply come to Me.

In My omnipresence, I listen to your prayers and your deepest confessions. In silence, listen also to My response, which will not always be the one you are expecting to hear, because My Heart does not follow the laws of the world and its dictates; My Heart follows the Laws of the universe, of the infinite Cosmos, those which come from the Immaterial Rays and rule life, even though often times human beings do not understand this and believe they have control and power over their lives.

In My Heart, find the Law that rules the universes and, within this Law, walk with Me.

To be within My Law, the first step is love and forgiveness, because without love and without forgiveness, you will not be able to enter higher universes, nor create the conditions for Higher Laws to enter your lives.

When you experience love and forgiveness, by dissolving resentments and stains from within, it is there that you pave the way for the unprecedented and the unknown to act, to restore what was broken, unite what was separated and create unity not only among beings, but also within consciousness, uniting your own being with Higher Life and Divine Life.

Therefore, let there be no obstacles to love and to forgiveness within you, but rather, have a spirit always willing to overcome yourselves, to defend what is true and that unites you to the Creator and His Law.

If you walk this path and seek to live in this way, even if in an imperfect manner, you will always bear witness to My Presence, because this is the way to demonstrate that you are My companions.

By your fruits of love and your capacity for forgiveness you will be known not only as disciples, but also as extensions of Christ.

I bless you and guide you along this path.

Your Master and Lord,

Christ Jesus