WEEKLY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS TRANSMITTED AT THE LIGHT-COMMUNITY OF FLOWER OF THE SACRED TEPUI OF RORAIMA, BOA VISTA, RORAIMA, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Accompany your Lord in prayer for the end of wars, for the end of the suffering of souls, for the reparation of the Heart of the Earth and of the consciousnesses of nations.

Accompany your Lord in prayer for the purity of children, for the strength of the women and men in the world, for the healing of the sick, for the spiritual missions of souls.

Accompany your Lord in prayers for the consecration of lives, for the rescue of souls in the abysses, for the reparation of the Kingdoms of Nature, for the restoration of the elements and of the consciousness of life on the planet.

Accompany your Lord in prayer for the gift of life, for the virtues of souls, for the essence of the human project, for the religions and cultures, for the peoples and their inner missions, for the expression of beauty, harmony, inner joy and peace.

Accompany your Lord in prayer, because My Heart incessantly pleads for the world. In omnipresence, I walk upon the Earth, but I do not always find the door of the human cry to intercede for the gravest situations on the planet.

For this reason, come and accompany your Lord in prayer. I need your heart awakened, I need your consciousness in sincere surrender, contemplating, in the world, the grave situations that anguish My Sacred Heart.

Despite your difficulties, your abysses and sufferings, despite all anguish that may exist in your days for what you see in the world and in yourself, come and accompany your Lord in prayer.

Sit by My side or, if you want, at My Feet. Lean your head upon the Lord and just pray, pray for all the causes that wound the Heart of God, and you will discover, in this simple exercise of uniting to Me, a great source of reparation, not only for My Heart, but also for your own life.

Seek relief in the service of prayer.

You will not find answers or hope away from your Lord. Remember that I Am the Way, the Truth and the Life, and come to the Father through Me and close to Me.

Come in prayer to intercede and cry out with your Lord, in whom you will find healing and peace for you and the world.

In the service of prayer is found the key of reparation. Take this key and restore the bridge between the human heart and the Heart of God, for there is still Mercy in the Heart of the Lord.

I bless you and wait for you with Me in prayer.

Your Master and Lord,

Christ Jesus
