MONTHLY MESSAGE OF THE VIRGIN MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED AT THE FLOR DO SAGRADO TEPUI DE RORAIMA LIGHT-COMMUNITY, BOA VISTA, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

May prayer always be your instrument of elevation, of reparation and of life.

May prayer be the balm that keeps you united with God and the breath that grants you spiritual life.

In prayer, My children, may you receive and sustain the gifts and the presence of the Holy Spirit of God.

May you seek in prayer the discernment, the wisdom, the answers for each one of the questions that today bring anguish to your hearts.

Do not seek within yourselves, in your minds, in your feelings and in your human discernment, for this is superficial, and no matter how much it may seem convincing and correct at times, it may not lead you to the manifestation of the Higher Will.

Before making any decision, as well as before taking any action, let your hearts seek the answer in prayer, in a true and constant prayer which will keep you connected with God, even in the most dissociative times of the planet.

In this cycle of the world, My children, the adversary sows the desire for self-sufficiency and self-realization in hearts, so that they will feel they can, on their own, come to any decision and take any step, and that this will be evolutionary and correct.

But today I tell you that a heart that does not pray and a mind that is not connected with God and with the higher dimensions will only absorb from the collective of humanity what is obvious and acceptable to human minds, what is sown by the prince of the world and who wants to lead consciousnesses to remain in superficialities.

For this reason, My children, I am still here and every day I insist that you be and remain in prayer, so as to keep the connection with the higher dimensions of existence alight, and that this connection not be just a memory of an experience lived in some cycle of your lives, but may be a reality at every moment.

These times are calling you to make a transcendent effort, while the world carries you toward striving for what is before your eyes: superficial promises of growth, of prestige, which will dissolve like dust when the time comes.

Your greatest effort, children, must be in the transcendence of life, in the connection with that which is non-material, with the Rays of the Universe, with the Higher Laws, with the Greater Life, which is the next step for those who are willing to live it.

Do not allow the world to call to you and push you only toward its promises, because these will pass, while that which is real and eternal will not pass. You are in a crucial time when you must be alert for the next stage of your evolution, for the next step you will take after this life.

It is time to build and consolidate the new being with all that you have already received and already know, and prayer, My children, no matter how simple it may seem to you, will be the protection and the sure doorway to a constant elevation of the consciousness.

Prayer is the foundation that will give you the possibility of reaching greater degrees of transcendence and of elevation, but it is necessary to pray and pray truly and from the heart.

May the impulses of your Heavenly Mother restore you day after day to the true purpose of your lives.

Hold My Hands; I am here to guide you to the Father.

I bless you and thank you for being here today with Me.

Your Mother, the Virgin Mary, Rose of Peace.
