

Tuesday, October 6, 2015

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS???

In the midst of a world that submerges itself each day more in the darkness of its own ignorance, I come to call you to awaken the Christic flame in your interior.

While the ordinary humanity seeks the progress in the discovery of new technologies that may hypnotize and submit the beings even more, I call you to discover the truth about what you are and for what you have come to the world.

Today I tell you, companions, that this incessant search for power and for manipulation is a fruit of a seed that you have brought from the universe, where there are also spirits that do not seek anything besides their own mental development and ways to conquer the consciousnesses through the material power and the force. But I tell you that greater than those two energies is the invincible Love of Christ.

Love is unknown for those who only seek their own material growth because, if they knew the true essence of love, they would know that there is not a greater wealth than the virtues that are consolidated in the hearts that abandon themselves. They would also know that there is no greater kingdom to be conquered than the Kingdom of God, that which is found inside of each being that opens itself to live love above all things.

Today I will answer to you a question that many do by observing the ills of the world:

"Where is God? How can He allow these things?"

Know that the ills of the world are caused by the lack of control of the forces that the planet human beings themselves have brought from the universe in order that they would be healed by the potency of love that you can live here.

Especially on the current days, those uncontrolled energies will emerge from the consciousnesses and the chaotic forces will stimulate their growth in the beings. If you have a heart pure and a strengthened by the power of prayer, you will be able to balance these forces with the light generated by your own spirit in redemption.

If you open yourselves to live love, beyond your own mental judgment and beyond all the degenerated teaching that you received hereditarily, you will be able to defeat all the darkness that inhabits your beings and that you often do not know.

This is a very solitary struggle that is assumed only by the brave because you will have to go against all the decadent human principles that are already engraved in the cells of this world's beings.

But everything is possible, because huge is the light that is being delivered to you in order that you will illuminate the abysses of the inner world. I only ask you, beloved companions, that you trust in the leading of the Divine Messengers and do not fear to lose yourselves in order to find a new and true being.

I love you and lead you under the Celestial Blessing of Christ.

By the power given to Me by My Son, I impel you to the emergence of a new race.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph