

Tuesday, November 3 of 2015

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS?????

There is no greater service than true prayer, in which the heart does not find boundaries and does not need to go so far, neither takes so long, in order to be before those who are most in need.

If you ask God to take you to the encounter with those who are most in need, so, when the Lord places you before each prayer throughout the day, find there the answers to His requests, to His holy will of serving and of helping the most destitute in the matter, as well in the spirit.

However, if in the moments of prayer you were tepid, asleep and without much enthusiasm to encounter God, it is in truth because you have not discovered that the essence of service is found in the praying heart.

The greatest service is the one that takes the divine presence to the hearts; it is the one that places the essences before the possibility of returning to their origin, to the Most Sacred One and Only Consciousness, from which comes all the things created for an evolutionary purpose.

If it were not so, you would be doing social works, which the world has plenty of; but, however, the Kingdom of God has not manifested itself among humanity yet.

All those who accept to live the path of humility, of prayer and of surrender are, in truth, missionary hearts and spirits and they must renovate this spiritual charisma every day and in all the opportunities that they have to find God and take Him, in divine essence, to all those who most need Him.

Make of your lives the perfect work of service to humanity and to the planet. It is achieved with the awakening to the truth that is to know that in everything there is the possibility of serving and that in all of your prayers you can cross boundaries and reach those who are most in need of aid.

Today, for instance, praying before My Most Sacred Heart, you accompanied Me to the Middle East and, thus, relieved the small hearts of many children who have already lost hope to be happy in this world.

Learn, dears, every day, to transcend yourselves, so that the Light of God comes to the most lost and forgotten ones among humanity and among the Kingdoms of Nature.

Learn, with My Chaste Heart, to be eternal missionaries and to carry out on Earth this universal mission, in which the transformation itself will result in the salvation and in the evolution of the whole universe.

I love you and I encourage you to move forward, growing and maturing, as fruits of the Sacred Plans of God.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph