SPECIAL MESSAGE OF GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED DURING THE 29th MARATHON OF THE DIVINE MERCY IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

For this work to be accomplished I need everyone, until I return to this unfaithful world, to be able to repair the hearts and raise from the ground those who have fallen to My right and to My left.

I will come to spiritually resurrect the nations that have been annihilated by humankind.

I will come to resurrect those who have died in life and who have lost their spirit of union with God.

I will come to resurrect the purest part of yourselves in order to bring you My Peace and the renewal of the spirit for the times to come.

For this reason I need you all in My Work, in this definitive hour when the greatest part of the world condemns itself without being able to see the light again, the Light of My Heart, the Light of God.

While everything happens, while the cup of injustice overflows by the offenses of humankind, I come to deliver to you again the spirit of My saving Mercy, that which penetrates the spaces and bears fruits in the humanity who lives in My Solemnity.

Every day I make you face new things, which you may not want to see, but for you to be within My paths your feet must be cleansed from everything you have done in other times and in this way walk free beside Me, together with Me or in My Heart in order to achieve the Purpose.

I know your doubts, your uncertainties, your lack of peace and tranquility. I know your mistakes and your faults. I know everything. But My divine vision does not come to focus on those things, even though I know you will have to purify them in an arduous and firm way.

My gaze penetrates your souls and hearts, there where the essence of everything created exists, that which has been designed by My Father from the beginning of this project for all of humanity.

The most acute part on the planet has not began yet; the first Armageddon will be an inner one, to then happen exteriorly in all the planetary life. What will you do, My companions, when you see things precipitating? Will you be more concerned? Will you lose control of your skills? Will you lack peace or will you panic?

My Lord wishes that, through My Heart, your hearts be steady and secure in the path that I offer you, facing changes with braveness and not fearing that which you will find inside and outside of you. I know that the transformation of the human race is very hard; I suffered it during the Passion. Each minute that I suffered for you was due to the sin of some man or woman, to a fault of humanity that was irreversible before the Eyes of God. Before your humanity would get lost in that time, I incarnated, at the request of My Father who is in the Heavens, to bring the message of salvation and redemption for the hearts.

What causes affliction to My Heart is that the humankind of the Earth in these times have gotten used to listen to My words but have not changed yet. For new things to ingress in your hearts and lives, you must be already transformed and make new things. As I have said once, I will not be able to "pour new wine into old wineskins"; until these days this Law is applicable for those that in truth recognize it with heart and soul.

The times of the definitions have come to all, and there will be no one else to you to tell about it. This will be between you, between each one of you and God. But My Heart, which is Kind and Compassionate, opens itself as a chest of light so that your souls may be deposited in It. In there, in the precinct of My Heart there will be no evil, no temptation, no adversity.

I come to bring to the world a message of hope, a hope that fades away little by little from the consciousness of humanity. Because now what embraces it is the fear of failure. Many thought in that time, during the Passion, that I failed; that I failed from My public life to My death. But what was that which led My Heart to persistence in face of so many offenses and injustices committed by My own brothers and sisters, by the children of God? Love was the unbreakable power that overcame all the tests. The love that was being generated within love opened the doors to redemption and to life for those who were dead. If in this time you do not live from this very love that I offer to you through My Spirit and through My Sacerdotal Heart, many will perish, and this will not happen due to the fault of any one, nor to the action of someone. Your steps may get indefinite if you do not take the risk to live this love that transforms and redeems everything.

But to reach this love that I talk to you about, companions, you must first die to yourselves, so that in this way you may be empty, and love may be born and spring as a source in the greatest desert of your lives. Many think that in these times of purification they will not be able to cross the desert, but if I am here today to encourage you, to bless you, to console and renew you, why do you believe you will not manage to do it? If I Am the Power of the Love of God that moves the Universe and all forms, why do you fear that your structures or your beings may tremble?

I come to remove from you that which is already old, that which no longer serves Me, because I have never used it to My profit. But you, as humanity, have made profit of humankind itself and of your own will. It will be through the love that I promote in the whole Cosmos that you will manage to minimally live the Will of My Lord. Do not be afraid, companions, of tearing you apart from inside and of asking the Heavens.

I come here, at this moment and in this time, for this part of the race, which must fulfill the Project that is written in the Heart of God. If you fail many will fail.

I come to bring you the Light that emerges inside this great abyss of the Earth where all have put themselves and where many have condemned millions of souls throughout these last times.

There may be a worse war than the one that happens in the world today, because the cruelest war is the spiritual war, which is being faced by the world and the human beings, with no consciousness and with no forgiveness.

Our Hearts overflow in pain by seeing the deeds committed by all humankind in these times. This way you will be able to comprehend, companions, that if before so much cruelty in those times My sacrifice was grandiose, your transformation is very small before so much adversity. I come to place your consciousnesses in another state and in another plane so that you may achieve a deeper and truer vision of what is happening.

Our last attempt as the Sacred Hearts, as Hearts of the Celestial Father, will be to give, in this month of December, the great and last impulse to all of humanity. It will be in this culminating moment that your hearts, humiliated before the Creator, will receive once again the Spirit of My Grace and of My Forgiveness, bringing to memory the recollection of My sacred birth in Bethlehem. May this month, for all men and women of the Planet, be the Good News proclaimed by Your Most Holy Redeemer.

Do not get desperate, do not get discouraged, the vessel may wreck, but it will not sink if I am in you and you are humbly in Me.

Try to promptly banish everything that bothers you, because I need you as My empty instruments so that My Laws may descend and be infused into the whole non redeemed Earth.

Better times will come after purification. Everything that happens in these times have already been prophesized and written by John, the apostle, My beloved disciple. But it has not been prophesized that the times of today would be so difficult. Today I deliver to you with My Hand the Grace of being able to get out from the abysses that Earth has generated. Be My apostles of Light, in redemption, and encourage yourselves to follow Me until the end. In this way, the Plan will be able to be accomplished and the most lost will receive the opportunity of returning to the House of My Father.

The chaff is being separated from the wheat, and with this wheat, however imperfect it may be, I will make the new bread of life which will be on the table to the end of times, when your Priest comes to take communion with His redeemed ones.

Have faith and persist. My Mercy, throughout times, can do all.

I thank those who say they love Me, or who proclaim that, because there is no shame on that, but rather the renewal of the spirit of those who seek the Love of the Redeemer.

Go in peace, facing the end of times and in the spirit of inner transformation, I will help you.

I thank you.

Glorified Christ Jesus
