

Wednesday, September 26, 2012

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

In My arms I hold the world. In My Heart I keep humanity.

In My prayer I help humanity and thus I aid all souls. With My eyes I contemplate the joy of some hearts and the pain of the wounded hearts.

Therefore, My mission is to bring Heaven to Earth through the prayers of My soldiers. My Graces are poured hour by hour, second by second over this world in need. My hands pray perpetually for you. My Immaculate Heart rises to the celestial throne of God to ask, as mediator, for all humanity.

While time, the changes and the events pass quickly in the life of all souls, My Heart wants to take you to a deep state of peace. I want to reveal to My little ones the essence of the Divine Mercy of Jesus. I want that My little ones learn to be with My Son without fearing for anything and thus to walk in joy towards the encounter with His Merciful Heart.

As Mother I protect the hearts and I awaken the power of faith for life. As the morning I bring hope, the renovation in Jesus, the beginning of a new path towards God.

Day by day I contemplate that the need of humanity increases; for this reason, from the Heavens of God, the Most High sends Me towards My children to help them to find the Love of the Creator.

Little souls of God the Father, today as the Mother of Divine Mercy I pour once more the Ray of Forgiveness and of Reparation upon your hearts. But so that your lives may feel the unfathomable source of reconciliation, you must say "yes" to God, to the Father of Love and Compassion.

Dear children, today I am calling you to convert your lives into forgiveness, into peace, into eternal Mercy for all.

Today I am calling you to do something for this humanity, because, through its own actions, it separates itself from the Peace of God.

Today I am calling you to reinforce the power of prayer in your lives.

Today I am calling you to fasting and to meditation on the Mysteries of the Holy Rosary.

Today I ask you that your hearts become merciful and humble so that Jesus may manifest Himself in each one of His disciples.

Today I am calling you to awaken from the slumber of this humanity.

Today I am calling you to be active servers of God for your neighbor, in your families, for your dearest friends and for all humanity.

Because today My Heart calls you to be in Christ the Savior so that the Grace of God may aid the world.

Today I call you to open your eyes to the reality of humanity and to commit yourselves with the perpetual prayer for all the causes that need the Mercy of the Redeemer.

Dear children, today I ask you to ignite the Flame of the Holy Spirit in your hearts so that My Immaculate Peace may propagate itself throughout the world, because at the end of everything, My Immaculate Heart will triumph!

Thank you for responding to My call.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity