DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Letter to everyone who considers himself or herself as a server and a consecrated to the Plan of God

Child,

Renounce power every day on behalf of those who sacrifice the neighbors and brutally murder them to impose their own ideas and needs.

Renounce your eagerness to express your way of thinking and feeling to everyone as you try to convince them, with the lucubrations of your mind, to make what you want to be done. Follow what I tell you on behalf of those who not only sickeningly express their own thoughts, but force the others to live according to their way of thinking.

Renounce your judgments, abdicating to find in the other what you have as ideal principles of life upon Earth, because you still think as a human mind, which - among all the existing creations - is the most dense and limited. Open yourself to understand the neighbor - their way of being, of feeling, of thinking - however imperfect it may be. Construct the spirit of unity on behalf of those who destroy it in the world.

Live purity, chastity. Renounce to seduce the others, even in thoughts. Make it as an offer for those who get out of control in the capital energies and abuse women and children in the whole world. Seduction must be understood as whatever induces someone to make what you want. Surrender your magnetism to God, so that only He attracts the souls to Himself.

Detach yourself from accumulations, donate your surplus. Be rigorous with what attaches you to your material life. Offer this act on behalf of all who are miserable, suffering the true needs that transcend matter and make the spirit suffer.

Be more silent and humble, obedient and even resigned. Observe the world around you and feel, inside of yourself, that it is much more important to make an effort to balance the planet than to let yourself be defeated by your necessity of permanently calling attention and feeding your aspects that gratify themselves when they have power over the others and the energy of all of them over you.

Pull out from yourself the roots which lead the planetary consciousness to sink into the abyss of this world. Make yourself responsible for the Plan of God and take on your part in the day-to-day. Your conscious transformation can save many lives.

The act of understanding the neighbor can save a brother or a sister of yours who is about to be murdered for thinking in a different way to their murderers.

Your effort to attract purity can prevent the abuse of a child in the world.

Your silence and your obedience can prevent an increasing confrontation between nations and religions.

Your prayers can change the destiny of humanity.

Am I wrong to contemplate the planet and find the only solution in the conscious effort of a few?

Will you trust Those who know and handle superior Laws?

Will these words be so real to you that they will lead you to an absolute change in your life?

Child, God expects your answer.

This is an appeal from That One who observes the world and does not find another hope, but in the awakening of those who say they are conscious.

Convert your life into a source of peace. May your actions generate merits for the planetary redemption. Only the "yes" of humanity can change the destiny of this decadent race.

The one who loves you and, for this reason, seeks your awakening.

Your Father and Companion,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
