DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS??

Offer your joy for those who live in sadness.

Offer your faith for those who are in despair.

Offer your love for those who live in fear.

Offer your peace for those who live without consolation, between wars and permanent conflicts.

Offer your home for those who do not have a safe roof under which they can be.

Offer the food you receive every day for those who live in the uncertainty of having something to eat or not.

Offer your prayer for those who do not pray, do not believe in God or pray to a false god and feed the reign of darkness with their ignorance.

Make of your own life a constant offer at the foot of the Celestial Altar. Live fully, in absolute gratitude for all you receive because - despite any need or difficulty - you have the greatest treasure of this world and of all others: you recognize the presence of the Creator in your small essence.

Child, so great is the imbalance of this planet and so abyssal is the human ignorance that you must make of your life an act of perpetual prayer, of selfless service and of surrender, in order to balance the evil that humanity generates for itself and for the Kingdoms of Nature. It is necessary more than a few prayers or even some days of service.

The missions you participate today, as a part of this group, are opening a door in the human consciousness so that it reaches greater possibilities of donation and surrender.

Do not remain only with the act of serving. Do not see these missions as all the others that have already been lived, but rather open yourself to the extraordinary that they offer to the consciousness of humanity and make use of this impulse to never be the same again.

It is a mystery for you how the Laws of the Spirit move. Many times you will think there is nothing different in the material facts between the past missions and the present ones, but I tell you of a transformation in the consciousness because it is there where the change consolidates itself and becomes true.

If you believe that I speak through these words, then seek deep within yourself to understand what I tell you and launch yourself into a discovery of the grace of selfless serving in each instant, of the grace of converting yourself into a true, permanent, constant, tireless, praying being.

Place your attention in your own heart, see the world through the window of your chest. Do not be afraid of being naïve because it is not of naivety that I speak to you about: I give you to know the Wisdom and the First Law of this world, which is Love.

Reflect on this truth and take, yourself, the decision of the path that you your life will follow. We can impel you, but not walk for you. We can show you the path, but not predict the results.

Persistence and rhythm in the walking of the pilgrim dictate the moment and the way of reaching the goal.

I love you always.

Your Father and Instructor, your Companion in this Evolutionary Walking,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
