DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS??????

Rest your consciousness on the sacrifice. There will be no greater repose for the spirit than the one it finds in the certainty of the permanent service to God.

Rest your consciousness on the sacrifice and you will find true peace, that which is born from the Grace of serving the Father and knowing that you are in the correct path of His Will.

While the world gets tired, struggling for meaningless goals, while the souls do not find peace or rest, because they confuse them with inertia and worldly pleasure, rest your consciousness on the sacrifice and, even if your bodies are tired, your spirit and your soul will come to know the true joy which is serving God.

Sacrifice is not martyrdom.

Sacrifice is the permanent effort to manifest the sacred in this world of superficialities.

Sacrifice is the knowledge of other laws that transcend matter and fill the spirit.

Sacred Office is that which is offered to God with the heart.

The One who calls you to the grace of sacrifice made out of love,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
