DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS????????

Child,

Consecrate your heart to the Mother of the World and allow yourself to be called "Child of Mary."

Announce your faith without fear and proclaim the truth that day-to-day is revealed to your small heart. Dress over your body the mantle of The One who protects you since the beginning and who dignifies Herself to accompany your steps to the end.

Dissolve the fear of saying "yes", even if you do not know exactly to what you are surrendering your life and your heart - since the Consciousness of Mary is, for you, at the same time, so known and so mysterious.

Feel the Celestial Mother besides you and receive Her in your heart as your Holy Mother, but do not remain only in this feeling that fits in your human heart. Approach the Consciousness of Mary and allow Her to reveal Herself before you as the Mother of all things, as a living part of God, as the love that brings to birth love, as the Mother not only of The One who opened the doors to a new humanity, but also the Mother of all those who must be reborn through His Love to reach in their lifetimes the archetype of Her first Child.

Recognize yourself as a child of the spiritual womb of Mary, the one from where the creatures are not only born for the first time, but are also reborn every day. The spiritual womb of Mary is the one which gives life to those who were dead in spirit, is the one that resurrects, through forgiveness, all those who are in the abysses of this world and of their own interior.

Allow yourself to be called "Child of Mary" and proclaim yourself this divine filiation. Even if many do not understand your faith and others persecute you for not accepting it, make of this mantle that you carry upon your body the testimony of your perseverance and the confirmation of the true essence of what you feel in your heart.

May nobody ever see in your face the shame for being faithful to the Servant of God. Trust that, if a cross will be given to you in these times and humiliation and martyrdom will knock at your door, The One who once accompanied the Cross of Christ will accompany yours too, and will make you discover the true love and the unity with God, far beyond yourself.

You will find out, child, that this mantle that you carry over your body may not protect your life, but rather your essence, your spirit and your path. If you open yourself from the heart to be a true child of Mary, and if you recognize what it means to be called so, many mysteries which are not from this world will be revealed to you.

The One who was known as the Son of Mary was educated by Her to seek God, to unite with Him and live His Will, even if this Will implied to surrender His own life for love to those who hated Him.

Child, if you want to be a true "Child of Mary", then follow the path of The One who was known as such in Nazareth, in Jerusalem, in the whole world and in the Universe.

Be a "Child of Mary" and allow Her to guide you. Lose the fear of following Her Steps and, embracing the cross that the Creator gives you, never take your eyes off from the eyes of The One who accompanies you in the Calvary of this world.

When you are in difficulties, look beside you and you will find the gaze of Mary. When you fall to the ground, with your cross over you, lift your face and elevate your hands because your Holy Mother will lift you up, because She does not call you "Child" only for you to serve Her: She calls you child to guide you just as God taught Her to guide those who come from Her Womb.

Renovate yourself, child, on this day, and deepen what it means to be reconsecrated as "Child of Mary."

The One who guides you to the Immaculate Heart,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
