SPECIAL MESSAGE OF GLORIFIED CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED DURING THE 30th MARATHON OF THE DIVINE MERCY IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN??

In the same way as the twelve apostles sitting at the table, today I have all of you close to Me, to fill you with My Gifts of spiritual life, to show you the Purpose of God in these times of chaos.

I Am this Sun that shines in the darkness of these final times. I Am the Eucharistic Heart for the universe of souls, for all the spirits that are in God; but I also come for the sinners, for the ones who turn their backs on Me through those I send to give My word of salvation.

Today, you are before My cenacle not only with the twelve that followed Me at the beginning to give the greatest impulse of Christification of humanity, a Project that has been achieved by very few. I do not lose hope, the battle has not finished and the truce has not been established because the Apocalypse has not passed and the hearts do not know what will happen.

I come to give strength to the inner worlds where God and His great experience of love truly live. While the forces of evil furiously unleash over the world to conquer the hearts, I come to establish in the ones never seen My true cenacle of consecration impregnated by the Purpose of God and by His divine thought in all this creation and for this entire race.

If Adam and Eve broke with the Project, humanity had to assume their own faults throughout the times and generations. But I incarnated in this world to end these things. I offered Myself for you in the Passion and on the Cross, in the Death and in the Ascension to be this thread of light that united all the commandments.

Now that you already know that you must love one another, you must support yourselves. You must learn to heal yourselves through the experience of love and unity. In this, My adversary will not be able to work because he does not know what the True Love of God is. When he was in Heaven, he got confused and the Law ousted him; he will be the last one to be defeated by the force of My own Blood when I return to the world in glory and in light.

While this is to take place, the good Christians will be persecuted and the ones who believe in Me will be mistreated, not for chastisement, but so that they do as I did. In silence, I surrendered Myself out of Love, out of Redemption and out of Salvation. You must not think who will live it or how it will take place. In the Heart of the Father all is written, but you, beings of the Earth, created in the image and likeness of God from the beginning of the project of the Earth and of humanity, can change the events when you are true, pure and humble.

The sins embrace many hearts that do not find solace or exit. I give you the table of My Mercy so that you make it known. This table replaces your faults in the book of the universe where everything is written, from the beginning to the end. I told you some time ago that I Am this Omega that comes to give an end to all things, but for this it will be necessary to go through the transition. I know that many of your hearts would like to hear words of hope, but this time has already been written in the hearts of the prophets, in the peoples of yesterday.

I Am the star that shines in the universe, which ascended towards the house of the Father first to return in the divinity of the beings and in the spirits of the workers of God who work untiringly to concretize the Plan. No longer suffer for your imperfections, just work to concretize My plans, and I will give you the transforming power and the power of the life of the whole universe.

I Am the Sun that comes to announce Itself again in the end of the times just as I once came to this world to die for you. I Am this glorious Sun, this Sacred and Glorified Heart that brings Grace and Mercy to you; this is the reason why My enemy works to dissipate the aspiration of the hearts of finding My Mercy and My Peace.

The soldiers align in the first lines of the Apocalypse and the spirits of all humankind prepare themselves to face the final time. I wish I could tell you all that is foreseen, but humanity changes the destiny of things as a consequence of their actions and their endeavors.

You must learn to love the will of God without judging it or questioning if it is good or not. You must love the will of God as I loved it and as I will always love it because it is a will filled with the Love of God, with His Heart that is most pure and noble for the whole universe. Human will is the hardest to die, it is the most resistant stone in the heart of humankind and behind it is pride and is negation.

I come to give you the impulse to change all these things, so that you may not be the same. I come to draw by means of your lives the new paths towards the Lord. Because of this, when you purify yourselves or when you rejoice you must thank God, because in truth I will always be extending My Hand to give you inner strength and reasons to change life, to change the genetics of the Earth, of the whole humanity.

I have come through Jesus to show you the path of overcoming, of redemption, of transcendence. Though I was constituted as a Divine Being, the apostles reached the same prodigies I lived through the Archangel Michael. If you have faith, everything is possible and nothing makes you wait. This form of project of God descends and takes place in the heart of all beings.

I hope that all souls recognize My Presence in this place where the aurora dawns in the life of each being. I leave in this forgotten place the refuge of My Heart for the upcoming times and I hope My apostles will assume their positions to take care of this refuge that I spiritually leave here, and that will serve the souls that will come to seek help, just as the holy oratory of Saint Michael.

I come to remind you about the humility of things in the simplicity of the forms and in the beauty of what is manifested. All must be bearers of the spirit of harmony and of vigilance of all that is sacred, of the cares that it needs in order to endure throughout the times.

All the praying ones have the mission of, in My name, helping in the manifestation of the Centers of Light of the communities that I institute, for the great final task. Figueira must keep sprouting, giving flowers and fruits so that may be born new Centers of Light, which will serve as support in the transition of Earth and especially to the groups of mercy that have responded to My call all this time.

Thus, you will be able to see, companions, that when we are no longer here to announce Our word, Our Spirit will be here until the moment when I return to this world to redeem it again and take it towards the New Humanity. There will be no other place on Earth to go but where you have worked spiritually during so long to learn and to instruct yourselves, to grow in prayer and in service to others. When everything is harder, My Church extended throughout the Earth will recognize what I did here, and it will be too late for the impious, for those who say they are immortal before God.

God is the Spirit of Immortality of yourselves, is the Eternal and Omnipresent Spirit, just as His Son, who was born from the Spirit of Immortality to give you eternal life and teach you how to transcend the times by means of Love and Sacrifice.

I institute here a sign that will be seen in the hearts of those who believe, not only out of their faith, but also out of love of the unknown, the love of the overcoming of themselves on behalf of My holy name. Because of this, I have you sitting at the table today, celebrating this first spiritual communion, on top of the Mount Sinai. Because remember that I Am this thread of light that unites all the commandments.

Next month I hope to see here in this Center those who say they are with Me, to implore for My Mercy for this humanity. Because what will happen with the missions will be important, and this work here must be supported. Aurora needs it, just as Aurora has given it to you in each new inner encounter.

The groups of prayer must organize themselves to be next month in this refuge that I am giving you. Thus we will constitute a new ceremony of redemption for the ones who suffer in humanity and will be bearers of My paternal blessings.

In this sacred cenacle, over Mount Sinai, I meet many coming to Me to present many petitions. I hear them when the prayer is true, just as it has been these days, on which My Heart alleviates itself of the sins of the world, of the ones who forget the Lord.

So much love I have to give you that you would not bear it. Each drop of blood poured in the Passion was a drop of love for the world, for each one of the souls in the passing of the times. If you counted how much blood I poured on the cross, in the Calvary or in the flagellation, and in the crowning of thorns, you would understand how much I love you, because My Father loves you through Me.

I leave you this sign and I bring quietude to your hearts. In the Light that comes from the infinite, I bless you in the Holy Name of My Father, the Victorious Light of His Son, and in the Power of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit, uniting you with the High and Superior, renewing your hope and strengthening your faith to be able to live as I expect.

In the Name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, Amen

The Glorified Christ Jesus
