DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, MOTHER OF THE DIVINE CONCEPTION OF THE TRINITY, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

My children,

Pray, pray much so that in each moment of your day God may hear you and thus His Magnificent Spirit of Love will be able to work through all creatures.

Dear children, pray, pray much so that your souls and the souls in all of the world may receive the consolation and the Mercy that they are waiting for.

Pray and do not tire of praying, because in prayer the strength and the loving dialogue of your hearts with God is to be found.

Pray, pray for the time of changes that will come, so that each heart of this world may listen with humility to the lovely requests of My Immaculate Heart.

Pray to open the Doors of the Heavens so that the angels may be present with their love and service on Earth and so that this can allow the hearts of many consciousnesses to change. When you reach a harmonious and loving prayer you will be going through the path towards contemplation of the Most High and your beings will be as sparks of Light in the universe.

Pray for those who do not pray. Pray for those who do not love. Pray for all of humanity because the prayer of the heart will guide you as a mother guides her little child.

This is why, dear children, My Maternal and Devotional Heart is among you to teach you to walk through the path of prayer and conversion.

Throughout these last months you have known the Face of the Queen of Peace, of the Mother of God, but still, My children, you must love the daily prayer until your hearts recognize that the prayer of all the groups will change the world.

When in Lourdes I called for penitence, I was calling the world to reflection, to the awakening of the consciousness before the actions.

In Fatima, I called the world to daily prayer so that souls would weave, by means of the rosary, a new web of peace and redemption that could help the world.

In Medjugorje, I called you to fasting and prayer, just as in Aurora where, for five years, I have been asking humanity for a little more sacrifice and effort so that it may be able to balance itself before the events that are outside the Law of God.

In Salta, Argentina, I called you to heal the heart through the adoration to the Eucharistic Heart of My Son. I was calling everyone to consider the importance of the daily union with My Son the Redeemer, through the Communion with His Holy Body and His Sacred Blood.

Today, dear children, I call you to the awakening in yourselves of the new time, to the preparation of your hearts through prayer, through adoration, confession, fasting and the devotion to the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary.

My children, after so many calls and warnings to humanity, today I call you to live your conversion and your redemption by means of prayer and peace.

Dearest children, you are part of the beautiful Project of God, you can be an expression of My Peace and the Divine Peace of My Son.

Children of My Father, now, recognizing the power of My Maternal Requests, again I call you to the prayer of the heart, because prayer will help the whole world.

I thank you!

Thank you for responding to My call.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity
