DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED ON THE EAGLE OF LIGHT BUS, DURING THE TRIP FROM THE CITY OF BUENOS AIRES, ARGENTINA, AND THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

The great secret of the peacemaking of the heart is in watching oneself all the time and to choose to live in the Heart of God, independently of the inner and outer influences of this world.

To cry out for peace is the beginning of the path, is to get into this spirit that will take you to an infinite path of transformation, because - even though peace is everything that humanity and the planet need most of all - the search for peace is not among the priorities of the human heart.

Peace is a state of union with God, a state in which, for an instant, the consciousness dissolves itself in the Divine Consciousness of the Creator Father, and there are no longer individuals there, but rather full unity.

Peace is a state of spiritual fullness. Peace is when the consciousnesses experience what they really are: particles of the divine life.

Many confuse peace with the fact of being able to act freely upon their own will, the fact of being able to affirm themselves, their personalities. Many believe they search for peace, but they search to establish their own convenience and opinion.

True peace is not separated from spiritual life, it is not something material. True peace reflects the common joy among hearts. In true peace, the spirits fulfill themselves together because there are no differences, there is only unity and communion with the Creator.

Search for the true peace, the one that comes from the union with God.

Proclaim peace, watch in yourselves those aspects of the consciousness that separate you from God and from your neighbor and that do not allow you to grow in spirit.

Cry out for peace, always knowing that to cry out is only the first step.

Be peacemakers, in the certainty that the spirit of peace descends upon the world when beings decide to live it.

To live peace is what will transform the planetary consciousness.

Peace is unity; unity with God, with the Kingdoms of Nature, with the fellow being; unity with the Plan and absolute willingness to live it in harmony.

Peace is the expression of Truth in the beings. To be what one is, is to be in peace. To create the conditions for the fellow being to be able to find themselves is to sow peace. Where there is Truth there are no conflicts.

At the end of this path, you will discover that the Creator, who is One, contains all things in Himself. And all the attributes for which you cry out and the ones you search so much for, you will find them altogether within your own essence. Unity will be the result of the concretization of the Plans of God. Unity is the unveiling of all mysteries. You will discover in your own essence the meaning of unity. You will discover that, in the diversity of Creation, within each creature, there is something unique, unchangeable and incorruptible: God.

Today, children, I only call you to want to discover a little of God that lives within you and it is in Him that you will learn to live peace as a principle of unity and unity as an establishment of peace.
