DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS????

Children,

Today I will ask you again to pray for the original peoples, for the indigenous consciousness of today and of yesterday.

That in your prayers you may ask for forgiveness for the mistakes made in the past and that, on your day by day, you may revise if they still exist, in your consciousnesses, the roots of millennial evils that hinder the unity among the beings, in spite of the differences.

A service is real when it is performed with the heart. However, it has a planetary repercussion when you are conscious of this service in the invisible life of the planet and when you observe, within yourselves, what must be transformed and transcended for that the situation in which you are serving to be able receive a more profound aid.

For example: if, when serving the original peoples, you search within yourselves what led them to this situation of poverty, of abandonment and of indifference by most of the human beings; if you search in yourselves to cut the roots of power and the need of transforming everything and everybody, adapting situations and consciousnesses to your own needs, you will deepen this service.

Children, the being who colonized had their own idea of what the human civilization should be and believed that everything should adapt itself to this idea and that which did not fit into their thoughts should be extirpated.

Although so many centuries have already passed, this form of thinking and of feeling is still present in the human heart and the majority - even though they may believe they have - has not learned to discover what the other has to contribute; has not learned to transform their own idea and to open themselves to share a different thought that comes from their fellow being.

The roots of the human and ignorant power are still alive in the consciousnesses of all and feeds on small and great actions, on thoughts and feeling that often manifest themselves impulsively.

In order to transform the present human condition you must self-observe and try to pull out from the root the old patterns of a degenerated race for them to give place to the newness.

May the conjuncture of this mission in brotherhood with the original peoples lead you revise, in your own interior, what I told you. Thus, you will make of this service a profound and true act that transcends a social action or even the charity of this world.

If prayer and service are always followed by transformation, you will soon see in the horizon the dawn of a new sun, announcing a cycle with greater clarity for the human consciousness.

I love you and, therefore, I guide you day by day.

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
