DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS????

To understand the words of the Divinity, it is necessary to live them.

To deepen in your own spiritual path and find new horizons, it is needed to walk on the first pathways that are presented to you.

If you want to know how to achieve a greater surrender, pray.

If you want to know how and where to consecrate your own life, serve.

If you want to reach a true union with God, give from yourselves and you will find Him where you least expected: there, where your own will does not exist; there, where there is no manipulation and no lie; there, where there is only sincerity and the willingness of being empty of yourselves, there, God will be.

If you want to know how to find simplicity, read and live My words. In a few lines, I hand you the universal knowledge.

Happy are the simple of heart, who will know to listen to Me and to follow Me.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
