DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED ON THE EAGLE OF LIGHT BUS, DURING THE TRIP IN BETWEEN THE CITIES OF SANTA FÉ, AND CAPILLA DEL MONTE, ARGENTINA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Children,

Be reborn in spirit every day, because there will be no other form for you heart, that still is so human to support the attacks of these times.

Dispose yourself to get up and to start again, renewing yourself before God, renewing your commitment to Him and asking Him for the Grace of being received again in His Kingdom of Love.

Direct yourself in consciousness to the House of the Father every day. For an instant, prostrate your spirit before God and say, "Lord, here I am. Grant me the Grace to persevere in You today and, if I fall, grant me the Grace to get up tomorrow."

In a battle, child, one cannot assure that the soldiers will remain standing, and without any wound. The one who fights on the side of the Light knows that they will never be defeated, because in truth, it is your Lord who is invincible in His Love and in His Mercy.

As in every battle in this world and outside of it, soldiers fall, get up, fear, get wounded, think about the past and about the life they left behind to be there. They reach, sometimes, the pinnacle of death, but at the end of everything, there will be no greater plenitude than the victory in Christ.

Child, this battle will be long and difficult, because you will not only fight against the enemy, but also against yourself, because not all the matter that forms your consciousness is willing to surrender all for a higher purpose, to surrender even your own life, if the Creator provides it so. Therefore, every day, I ask you to affirm your fortress in Christ, so that each day your union with God be greater than your resistances in surrendering to Him.

Pray, meditate on the surrender of Christ, meditate on the greatness of the Father and let yourself be permeated by something higher that places you before your smallness and shows you how, in truth, that fear which consumed you is small and how truly great and unfathomable the Love of the Father is, of which you have only experienced a drop.

In this world of so many prisons and of so many stimuli to keep the consciousnesses isolated from Truth, open a window in your chest and contemplate the infinite, contemplate the Creation and feel that you are part of something greater and that God has something greater than this life for you.

Life on Earth, child, is the trampoline for you to take a great leap and, from this leap, to really start your experience as a child of God. Look at the events in this way and let yourself be elevated by means of the celestial trampoline that represents the opportunity you live today to listen to Our Words. May they not pass like the wind, but leave an echo within you and lead you to a greater understanding and, as a consequence, to a true transformation.

Enter My Heart. I invite you to live in My simplicity.

Your Father of yesterday and today, your Companion of all eras,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
