MENSSAGE FOR THE APPARITION IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA,

TRANSMITTED BY THE VIRGIN MARY TO FRIAR ELÍAS:

Dear children:

May today your feel walk together with Me to the victorious encounter with Jesus, so that in this way will manifest your redemption and be born the new apostles of Christ, the peace-makers of the Good and of the Light.

For this dear children today I ask you that you meditate again on the public life that My Son lived one time here on the Earth. May you introduce your hearts to the true spiritual values of the instruction of Jesus, the Redeemer. In this way My children, I want that you consider the redeeming power of the Gospel as a renewing guide for your lives, and for your hearts as Light in the world, as Love for each being, as precious instruction that forms your hearts so that they may be transmitters of the Good and of the Peace.

The teachings of Christ are current throughout all of these times and today they are active for all consciousnesses.

Dearest children of My Son:

When I call you to contemplate the instructions of the Gospel I call you to adore the Mastery that Jesus irradiated and diffused as the King of kings. My children in the Gospel also is revealed the simple but powerful keys for the redemption of humanity. The reading of the happenings of Jesus enriches your soul because through the Gospel and through prayer of the heart you may find the merciful grades of Love of My Son.

As Mother I invite you to enter into the School of Christic Instruction, I invite you to pass through in this end of the cycle all the lovely passages that My Son reveals and sows in humanity. Because in the Gospel you will find the living word of God made spirit and essence through the Master Jesus.

For this dear children all those that do not consider in their lives the power of the Gospels because they believe that they are returning to the past will be only going far away from the true essence of conversion.

When I call you to put into practice the Gospels and thus realize the changes for your lives, as Mother Co-Redeemer of Christ, I call you to convert, transform, consecrate and elevate your lives following the Will of God.

In this way dear children living the power of the Gospel your hearts you will be participants in the first paths of instruction of the universe for humanity, because through the teachings and parables that Christ irradiated for the world is found the new and luminous codes of peace for the formation of the new flock of My Son.

The Gospel read from the essence of the heart nurtures the spirit, gives life to that which is empty in you and allows you to reencounter fraternity among creatures.

When My Son gathered all the peoples to preach He was uniting hearts and healing deeper wounds in the consciousness of humanity, He was exercising in this way the merciful power of the Redemption.

Then dear children may the Gospels be for you the word of the new life and be a principle near to you for your awaited conversion of the heart.

God waits for you to contemplate the most precious that the Holy Spirit has delivered to humanity: Jesus Christ the Savior.

May you begin this path of apostolate from the devotion to the Most Sacred Redeemer Heart of Christ your Shepherd.

I thank you for answering during this month to My call for Peace!

I bless you eternally,

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity.
