

Monday, December 24, 2012

MESSAGE FOR THE PRAYER VIGIL ON THE CHRISTMAS EVE, TRANSMITTED BY THE VIRGIN MARY TO FRIAR ELÍAS

Dear children:

On the Vespers of the Birth of the Little King in your hearts, today I call you to pray for all My children who, during these festivities, distance themselves from the union with the Redeemer of the World.

Thus, may this Christmas Eve be for you a day of reconciliation and of peace with the Holy Spirit of God. May your souls come to be lit again by the Flame of the Holy Spirit. May your little hearts be filled by the presence of My Maternal Love.

My children, during these festivals a part of humanity is still in the common life, and many of My children believe that they are doing the good and the correct for this day. Thus, during this special vigil of prayer on Christmas Eve pray for the souls that will be lost, pray that the consciousness of humanity be dignified and deserve to be participants in this new cycle, pray so that My Son Jesus may pour His Merciful Love upon those that are most in need of light.

As the Queen of Peace, I pray so that each child of Mine finds the path that they need, because still many are in need of spiritual guidance from My Heart.

Dear children, pray so that all My Marian Work in this part of the world - a work that was intercepted by the astute and great achievements of the enemy towards a child of Mine - may be light and redemption for all hearts.

For this reason I invite you to continue walking, because God needs the donation and the abnegated services of each one of His children so that His love may be manifested.

Dear children, when the Works of Peace and of Light are expanded by means of the devotion of all of My children, these Marian Works are closely observed by the enemy that intends to overthrow it through the first attack on the inner temple that My Heart has built in each soul. Because of this, if you clamor for My Immaculate help, My Immaculate Heart may protect you and support you, so that you may be separated from any kind of great danger.

My children, today and for this new planetary cycle, you are knowing the reality that exists between the celestial powers of light and of the darkness of hell. It is necessary that My children grow and know that now it is the time of the great redemption of evil.

I am arriving towards you, the Star of the Morning, a Star that announces the universal cycles for humanity. For this dear children you are much welcome to the cycle of Redemption and of Light, because the Father waits that each creature, that each one of His children be conscious of the Graces that were poured with so much love over them.

If your hearts may live in the Consciousness of the Divine Plan of God, the souls in the world and especially the souls that My Heart guides so closely, will be absolved of all faults and dangers. When one of My children is manipulated by the enemy, My Maternal Heart intercedes to rescue in the Heavens the inner essence, an essence that belongs to God.

Pray dear children for those that a short time ago abandoned My path to Christ> My path of redemption. Pray during this Christmas Eve so that the Holy Spirit is present in those that have distanced themselves during this last month from My true Maternal Love of protection. Pray that all reach the light of My Son in this so definitive hour. Pray so that My plans of Peace may be accomplished and rescued in each one of you.

Little hearts:

May this Christmas Eve be a night of renovation, reconciliation and pacification in Christ, My Beloved Son of Love. May you open your hearts more deeply and offer this Christmas Eve of Christic peace for those that run away from the protection of My mantle.

As the pastors of Bethlehem did, your souls may announce the coming of the King Child for all, and give testimony of your love for Christ.

I thank you for being union of soul and heart, to My special call for redemption.

Thank you for responding to My call. Who loves you maternally.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity.