

Friday, September 23, 2016

WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Children, recognize yourselves as part of an infinite, which you ignore, due to your own smallness.

The fact that the Creation is not understandable for you or that not all knowledge is inside your minds does not mean that it does not exist.

The Work of God in this time must be definitive and generate the awakening that the souls have expected so much for hundreds of years.

In all religions, just as in all spiritual groups that have existed on Earth and that began with pure principles, the interference of the human mind many times diverted the Purpose of God, and this made souls wonder if the religions are, in truth, being guided by God or by men.

This is how faith began to be lost in the human heart and the Creator sent His Messengers, so that will be Themselves those who guide humanity.

The Divine Messengers, children, are not only here among you. We have also tried to guide and warn other groups and religions, but even so, they were not capable of listening.

The Voice of God is trying to silence humankind in order to straighten their path and remove human power and authority that some think they have over souls throughout the whole world.

The human heart has lost confidence in their fellow beings because the one who is not reliable cannot rely on the other. This is why, children, many deny the Words of God pronounced over times.

The one who is transparent and true in their faith recognizes the truth when it is before their eyes, and does not fear or doubt when listens to the Words of God, because they know they are capable of following them, even beyond themselves.

Children, if you want to recognize the truth, be true. If you want to live plenitude and launch yourselves into the Will of God without fear to deceive yourselves, then, do not deceive your neighbor, do not lie, do not manipulate, and attract for yourselves only wisdom and truth.

You will live in peace and without mistrusts when you are able to sow peace and trust in the world through your works, your feelings and your words.

You will be able to proclaim yourselves as apostles of Christ when, in truth, you follow His Words and live for Him and not for yourselves.

Humankind would not fear the destruction of the church if they did not know that it is about to collapse, due to its own actions.

You do not need to fear the destruction of the Work of God if you know that it is truly of God and not of humans and if you know that you will do everything, in obedience of the Designs of God, so that this Work may be sustained.

Today, children, I teach you to be true, because in this way you will recognize the truth. There is no other way to perpetuate a Work but with truth and the living example that you give to the world.

Do not fear the words of humans because the one who points out false lies in their neighbor is the one who tries to hide their own.

Follow the truth and work everyday so that you may be each day more transparent before God. In this way the masks of illusion will fall by themselves.

The one who warns you for you to be true and humble,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph