

Sunday, August 14 of 2016

DAILY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Child, multiply the impulses you receive with the joy of the heart and the permanent offer for the transcendence of the old, for living the new.

Remember each instruction received in the last days, in recent times. Feel again inside you that joy that your soul emanated when it was before the possibility of living the Plans of the Most High in fullness.

May your daily routine not consume you and may your difficulties not consume you. The human consciousness is much more willing to embrace the limitations than its true potential, because in this way it has been raised, to never discover the reality about itself and to always limit the greatness of the likeness of God in the littleness of a passing human body.

So then transform these old patterns of consciousness, and hold on to what is most perfect and wonderful within you. Acknowledge the difficulties but know that beyond them lies your possibility of transcending them, not with your own power, but because hidden within you lies the One who can do all things, the impossible and the unthinkable. He is your possibility of transcendence. To be in Him is to discover Him within you and to recognize that you are a living part of the Creator, just as all manifested life is.

Concentrate, child, in not losing joy and hope, so that these two divine gifts may impel you always to the new and so that you find in them the eternal fountain of the life in sacrifice, in surrender, in renouncement and in transcendence, these attributes that are so feared by those who have not yet discovered that the fullness lies in serving God with joy and losing oneself to find, in one's place, the Creator of the universes.

Think about what I tell you, child, and - more than that - take it as a possibility for you. Your difficulties will not disappear and neither will the imperfections keep from hurting your soul: what will happen is that this weight will be lighter for you, because the most important for you will not be the shortcomings, but rather the greatness of God, His possibility of transforming all mud, all impurity, and making sacred and perfect that which so far was mere clay in His Hands.

Entrust yourself to the Lord and have His perfection as your greatest hope. Strive to be in His Hands every day and find your eternal joy in the gifts that set evil apart and that approach you to God: sacrifice, renouncement, surrender and transcendence.

The one who calls you to serve with joy and to not lose sight of the perfection of God in your own heart,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph