

Thursday, December 15, 2016

MESSAGE FOR THE SPECIAL APPARITION OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF PETALUMA, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

My beloved children,

I am the Queen of Heaven and Earth, the Mother of each creature that lives and animates the universes. I am your Holy Celestial Mother.

I am the same One who stopped wars with the merits generated by the purity and simplicity of three shepherds.

I am the same One who united peoples and cultures through the trust of a beloved indian, in a dear nation that dedicated its life and the following centuries to Me.

I am the same One who, in the East, warns souls so that they may repair the Heart of God through communion with My Son.

I am the same One who, in Medjugorje, guides hearts into discovering peace.

I am the same One who, as a White Buffalo, manifested to the eyes of those who in this way could understand Me, so that they too could live peace and communion with all life, with all Creation.

I am the One who warns you, but also gives you refuge.

I am the One who tells you the truth that you do not want to hear and shows you what you do not want to see, because the time has come to take new steps in the transformation of spirit and of consciousness. But I do not only bring you warnings, I also show you the path to Salvation, and, day by day, teach you to find Christ, and, through Him, the whole truth about higher life.

I come to remove you from the illusion of this world because many are blind of heart, deaf of spirit and incapable of freeing their own souls from the abysses of materialism and human perdition.

I come to open a new horizon for you so that all My children may receive an opportunity of awakening.

I have come to transform the cradle of darkness into the new nativity of Bethlehem, and to take back for My Son the reign that belongs to Him and not to worldly forces.

I am here, children, to prepare the path of Christ, because His Light and Mercy will descend upon each particle of life and will try to awaken sleeping souls to the truth.

I do not come to lead you to a religion, new or old, however, I come to awaken you to the Now, to the higher life that transcends any doctrine.

I come so that you may discover the true expression of the word unity, which you carry within the name of this nation. I come to make this word alive in the lives of all those who say yes to Me.

It is possible to transform the retrograde human condition in which you live, believing that it is called progress and comfort.

Children, many are dying in spirit and do not see it. Where is your mind? Where are your thoughts, aspirations and intentions? Do you by any chance think about God every day and ask Him what His will is for this planet and for humanity?

I come here to remove you from ignorance and from your excessive care of yourselves. I want to remove you from egoism as a nation and as humanity so that you may perceive that millions of My children in many nations of this planet are suffering and in distress so that a few may live the comfort and selfishness that their blind eyes seek incessantly.

Beloved children, it is because I love you and because you are My children that I tell you these things.

Many come here seeking a better life and become confused with the deep illusion that this world offers, forgetting that the true mission of this nation is to re-establish peace in the world, because it has human powers for that.

The unity that it carries within its name should be a living attribute that would unite all the nations through the spirit of fraternity, understanding and service to those most in need.

Enough of exploiting and making use of what does not belong to you, children, while many suffer the consequences of those uncontrolled actions!

I come here to teach you the power of prayer, which transforms the consciousness and human life.

I come here to ask you to unite to Me from your heart, that you ask for the help of My Son so that His forgiveness may descend upon Earth and convert that which is dark, so that you may not only live peace, but also establish it in this world.

As your Mother and Queen of Peace, I ask you, My children: cry out for the Mercy of My Son so that He may come and give you the grace of a definite awakening, so that He may open your eyes to the true light of the infinite and guide you to the triumph of the Divine Plan for this planet, because the moment has come for this life and for this Earth to become sacred.

I love you and I bless you so that you may hear Me and understand what I tell you.

May the Peace of My Son flood you and transform you forever!

I thank you for being with Me today,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace