

Sunday, January 13 of 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

Children of My Sacred Heart.

Do not lose the strength of the inner heart for anything.

You, My partners, raise your voices towards the Almighty because God will listen to your proclamations of love. In this way you will be spiritually rehabilitated by My Redeeming Love and your lives will become blessed and sacred before the Throne of God.

My Lord of the Universe asks Me to encourage, guide, welcome, love and sustain all of you inside My Sacred and Blessed Heart, but if you as souls open the door of your existence, under the Power of the Father and the Holy Spirit, I will be able to free you from any evil that may deceive you and disturb you.

As the traps of the enemy become uncontrollable for souls, from Heaven comes the power of the ray of Mercy to rescue and support each heart that lives on Earth. To open the door of your inner temple means to untie the knots that control the very life of the consciousness, knots that feed the slowness, which prevents you from walking freely towards My Light.

I teach you to love above all things, to walk in spite of the great abysses that are at your side, and I encourage you, above all, to trust in the power of My Saving and Redeeming Love. For this, My dears ones, do not fear anything. The Judgment is near, it will happen from the Heavens towards the Earth, and you must exercise the Compassionate Love that I have taught you.

Live my commandments expressed through the parables. Everything renews itself, and now My new parable is the Grace of these messages that My Heart is giving you, and pouring out as Light.

My dears ones, go forward! Even if you do not see Me, do not feel Me nor hear Me, I Am by your side, walking silently and in vigil for the movements of your interior. Do not fear to be purified by My Fire, nor fear to face the truth of your lives. Know that I Am here, returning, first in Spirit to help you before any situation, and to extend My hand, which will take you to the new paradise. Under the Grace of God, be blessed from your heart.

Thank you for keeping My commandments in your hearts!

Christ Jesus