

Tuesday, January 8, 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

Trust, My dear ones, because My Fount is that which renews life and gives it the eternity that is still unfathomable.

Today, I come to confide in you the mystery of My Love for you, for all souls, and this mystery is called the adoration of each human heart. I have been with you since before you ever even knew of me in life, because My Spirit of Love and Redemption sprouts directly from the wise heart of God, and He gave to all that which is most precious: His First Born Son.

For this, My companions, when you are with Me, you are with the Father, and if you are with the Father, you will be in the Fount of His Prodigiousness and Graces, those that He still intends to pour out upon the hearts that accept My saving message.

I return to prepare My flocks, but first I will come with My Blessed Mother, to bring you within Her arms to the Temple of My Sacred Heart, where My Consciousness may contemplate the love and effort of all souls that day by day intend to live in the Will of My Lord.

If you follow My Path in obedience, I will show to you the keys of sacrifice and sanctity, because My Father awaits new saints who, in humility and the emptiness of self, unite to My redeeming service for the world and for all souls. I am once again with your souls, to encourage them and to walk in My presence, because My Heart waits for you to adore Him, just as in the Eucharistic Body, so that My signs of salvation may be the guiding stars for souls. I will sustain those who join Me in love and in compassion.

In the Glory of the Father, be blessed.

Thank you for keeping My precepts of love in your hearts!

Christ Jesus