DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF YREKA, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Believe in tomorrow and you will be born into a new life. Have hope and you will be reborn as essence. It is time to heal and not to resist. It is time that life detaches from its bonds by means of love. Without love, nothing is worthwhile, nor is anything achieved.

Feel the peace that I once gave you within, take refuge in it, and you will fear nothing. Do not give power to what does not exist. Help Me to dismantle the plans of My adversary with intelligence.

Believe once and for all that you will be delivered from evil, because where I am present nothing opposed to Me can be so. I am the Mother of Light, and where Light is, there is God. Because the Father is Eternal Light, Infinite Love in constant expansion. And if you unite with this Love, who will separate you from It? Do you believe in Christ? He is your trust and He is your whole life; He knows who you are and whom you have come to serve.

Nothing is separate; only the human mind separates. Overcome obstacles with peacefulness, and may that peace be stronger than all storms. Place your senses, feelings and ways of being into the Hands of the Lord. He will know perfectly well what to do with each one of them. And thus purity will arise and the treasures will open so that the virtues may emanate from the greatest depths of the consciousness. Darkness will dissipate and all will be renewed. To God, nothing remains inconclusive.

The Universe will show the true face of life. Believe in that Divine Face which is the Universe in its infinity of forms and expressions. You come from that place and some day you will return with the baggage of a lived experience, of a concretized redemption and of a love communed with Christ. Your promise will be to transcend the challenges, day by day, without wanting any immediate result.

I thank you for responding to My Call.

Who gives you the impulse,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
