DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED DURING THE TRIP FROM SAN FRANCISCO, TO THE CITY OF MOUNT SHASTA, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Listen to the voice of My Heart, so that all may be transformed, just as the Father has thought it so.

Hear My words as a balm for the soul and healing for the consciousness.

In each pronounced word, the sacred word of love is expressed, that which from the origin has created everything throughout this Universe and in others.

Hear the voice of My Heart as the spiritual nectar that gladdens the heart and heals wounds.

Openly listen to the voice of instruction so that each step taken may be based on the living of love and peace.

Listen to the voice of My Heart for those who do not listen, and for those who do not feel it. Listen for those who, due to being unconscious and lacking truth, lose the Grace of recognizing within themselves a higher and unknown love.

Listen to My words, one by one, as if they were the last, the words that leave seeds of love sown in the consciousness, codes that will forge a new being and a new soul, washed by the Spirit of sanctity of the Mother of God.

Listen to the voice of My Heart attentively for those that do not pay attention to all that I say, so that all consciousnesses may be worthy of greater knowledge beyond their limitations.

The voice of My Heart makes you grow in love and in brotherhood, in the absolute void of self and in sacred patience, with the purpose of awakening the Christs of the New Time.

I thank you for responding to My call.

Who blesses you,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
