

Thursday, December 1, 2016

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF SALAMANCA, STATE OF GUANAJUATO, MEXICO, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

Dear children,

When the triumph of My Immaculate Heart is near, it seems that everything precipitates, to the point that new changes turn up for you. The important thing at this moment is that you have the assurance that while by My side, nothing will happen to you, because I always place you inside My Heart so that nothing can perceive or observe you.

Thus, at this time, I am finishing forming up the last praying armies so that they may accompany the Heavenly Mother in this imminent battle of Armageddon. I wish that you, dear children, could feel the confidence that everything is in its place, even when it sometimes does not seem to be. Each signal that you receive within you is important because they will place you nearer to or further away from Divine Will.

For this reason, on this day I come to tell you that the stages of My Plan of Peace are taking place and that all of you, in due course, will be benefited by the results of this pilgrimage. It is thus that after so much time, your Heavenly Mother has managed to come and address matters of humanity that seemed impossible to resolve. In this way, I teach you to have faith and to practice it above all tests and difficulties.

May the Mirrors of your hearts shine before Mine today, so that all of this may be a precious offering of love and of reconciliation with your Father God. On this day I leave you an open path so that you can again find your essential purity, a key that will easily open the doors to the Brotherhood, just as happened today.

Remain in My arms during this day so that I may keep contemplating you, and My gaze be able to protect you and distance you from all evil. Be brave and keep being so, for the total triumph of My Most Pure Heart.

Who blesses you always,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace