WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED DURING THE FLIGHT BETWEEN THE CITIES OF SACRAMENTO AND OKLAHOMA, UNITED STATES, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Child, begin this new cycle finding the Truth within yourself. Seek unity with Life as a way of repairing what you have lived up until today as a part of humanity.

This world is entering its last cycle of Grace and Mercy, and the miracles and the awakening that souls will experience will be inexplicable, but they will also be intense, and, for some, inexplicable due to the inner and outer attacks that humanity will live, because the enemy will try, until the end of his days, to interfere in the Plan of God upon the Earth.

Keep peace in your little hearts and try to be meek and humble, every day, because this battle you will live as an individual and also as part of this planet in purification can only be defeated with the silence and meekness of the heart.

The quieter you are internally, the more you will know how to receive the celestial impulses and to be attentive to observe the outer attacks and the reactions of your own inner purification, and to balance them promptly.

Keep your heart in peace and thank God every day for being in the world in this time. Child, you can be certain that, despite so many struggles and the even greater anguishes that your heart feels, the divine triumph is now a reality, not because you have already overcome all things, but because God is invincible and, with His immeasurable Mercy, He has called You to be a living part of His Plan of Love in this world.

Serve with joy. In service find the constant engine of life. You will look within yourself and many times you will not find reasons to smile or rejoice, but do not look at yourself so much, but at the others. Place your attention on the potential of loving and serving in all things, and there the essence of your happiness will be settled. Child, always seek unity with all of your brothers and sisters, because it is time to heal the wounds that rejection and prejudice have generated in the human heart. Repair these acts with the conscious effort of understanding and loving your neighbor.

May this new cycle be of rejoicing, sacrifice and profound surrender. May you avail yourself of the recent graces of God to help humanity.

May God make of you, today and always, His sacred instrument of prayer and peace.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
