MONTHLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Wash your faces in the fountain of perseverance every day. It is time to renew your own being so that each day may bring an opportunity to start again.

The atavisms emerge to be healed. The miseries emerge to be cleaned with the water of life of Divine Mercy. How will a wound be healed if you do not bring it to light and do not let the sun and the pure air of life regenerate it?

Children, I have already told you so many times that this is the time of inner courage, but many have not understood it. I speak of courage to overcome oneself, to renounce, to humiliate oneself, to recognize oneself as ignorant, to obey without understanding, to follow without knowing where you will arrive.

I speak of courage to see the abysses in your own inner world without fear, without apprehension; of opening the curtains of the theater of life on Earth so that Truth can emerge; of putting aside so many characters created to survive in this world, to recognize that you are nothing of what you thought you were, and knowing that, in reality, virtues are few and meager when you are facing the hidden miseries of the human condition, but that it is possible to transform this scale when the being is willing to be sincere and transparent to themselves, the world and God.

The moment has come to stop doing the evil that you do not want to do, in order to do the good that you have always aspired because now the constancy, the persistence, and the determination of each being will count.

You have already sufficient strength to overcome and transcend your own human condition, because you have been strong to be here today and yet exist as humanity, even in a world that has degenerated. You have been strong not to lose the condition of Children of God and, even though the chaos has expanded on Earth, the possibility to live the Christic love is still latent within the beings.

Therefore, I tell you that yes, you are strong to grow and to take concrete steps in your own transformation, to reach what seemed impossible to you, and to be worthy of being called companions of Christ, pacifiers, apostles of a new time.

Just as there is the human potential to respond to evil and to manifest these atrocities, as there is today in the world, there also exists, with greater power, with greater potency, the possibility to love, to surrender everything for love, and to transform this world in a redeemed Earth.

It has come the time, children, that you so much awaited. The inner and outer abysses will open, even if you do not want to see them, and even if you try to hide them from yourself, all your brothers and sisters will perceive them. There will be no other form of living these times but with the determination of saying "yes" to God.

The cross of sins of the world is already upon you, as it was upon Christ, and there is no longer any way of saying "no", only to carry it with love, for the redemption of the planet, until the end.

Transmute yourselves, transcend yourselves, be thankful to the Father and He will never abandon you. At the end of everything, the Doors of Mercy, of Universal Redemption and of Perpetual Union with God will open, and all the efforts, the surrender and sacrifices will have been little when facing the greatness of the Divine Presence.

All the hearts that were worthy of imitating Christ will glorify themselves with Him in His Presence and, just as the Son is in the Father, all will be, because unity is built upon the foundations of absolute surrender. Now, it is time to start building.

The One who inspires you to the concretization of the Plan of God,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
