

Friday, January 27 of 2017

WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Let your consciousness reach the limit of its probation. Let the abyss of your inner miseries open completely. Let your being fully enter the school of humiliation and of humility. Wide open your eyes to see what you have to transform, and do not fear.

Do not turn your face when you realize that, in truth, all you thought about yourself was created by your mind and by the illusions of this world. See, child, with courage and bravery, the mud that hides the pearl of your essence.

Give thanks to God for coming to know that you are not what you thought you were, and ask Him to show you the truth, so that you may thus tread with determination the path of transformation.

When the consciousness reaches its limit and no longer stands what it sees of itself, it is when it decides to transform itself and consolidate, in its own being, the true spiritual virtues. For this reason, do not grieve your heart before the inner abysses that these times reveal to you because - in due moment - all will be revealed.

Avail yourself of each test to seek what is real, in order to find what makes you similar to God: this is where He places His Hope; this is what makes the Creator not give up on His Project; this is what makes many saints, blessed ones, and beings of light, who should no longer be in this world, keep impelling humanity from Inner Planes of the planet.

Let all your being get tired of itself. Let all your consciousness deeply touch those spaces that you never wanted to see, because this is the time to live it. Live it as long as Grace, Mercy and Divine Piety accompany you.

Be firm and show the Father that you want to be something else. No longer deceive yourself, child, and do not deceive others. Only live the truth that today emerges to your eyes and know that, beyond it, beyond all misery and imperfection, beyond all the condition of mistake and sin, there is something perfect and crystalline, and you must reach that.

Raise your face and be brave. Pray, clamor for Mercy and let yourself be broken inwardly and outwardly. Let humiliation lead you to humility, may rendition lead you to meekness, may your miseries be the path for you to find the Divine Mercy.

You are still in time to be true and simple. You are still in time to let God win over you and make of you His Victory in this world and in the whole universe.

Trust that every apparent defeat holds, in itself, a great victory, because your King won over the world on a cross, finding the abysses not only of Himself, but of all human misery. For this reason, child, when you suffer, give thanks to Gods and ask the Father to show you the truth, because the truth will always lead you to the triumph of Good.

The one who accompanies you always, your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph