WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF SAN GIOVANI ROTONDO, FOGGIA, ITALY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

When a heart is sincere before the Grace and the Greatness of God, the Heart of the Father responds to it.

It is only necessary, children, that you be sincere and simple of heart, so that the Mysteries of God may be revealed. It is only necessary to be grateful, so that you can find within you the resources to return to the Origin and find in your own inner self what unites you to the Universe and to the Creator.

There are plenty of truths to be revealed. There are plenty of mysteries hidden for the human heart, because it lacks simplicity and gratefulness, when you are before the opportunities that God gives you.

The Creator waits for His children to awake, because He did not create humanity to live in illusion and ignorance forever, believing that reality begins and ends in their material and human life.

This is the time of the awakening of the truth, a truth that began to unravel on Earth since the originating peoples opened to commune with Life and to live in gratitude and simplicity, united to the Whole.

That truth was revealed to men, in one way, through Buda; it was announced in the symbols of the Prophets; it was materialized in the Example of Christ; however, many ears remained deaf, many eyes blind and many hearts closed to learn about it and to know it.

All lines of knowledge, philosophy and true religiosity are doors for something which is wider, a Universe that does not fit in the mind nor in the human heart, but through that heart, you can begin to know It.

It is time, children, to discover the potential of simplicity and gratitude, the potential of brotherhood and of love of neighbor, because through these simple attributes, which are in the essence of all true spiritual path, a great mystery will be demystified.

It is time to discover the truth and start to return; to read the Will of God on the mirror of the heart; to see the unity that exists in all life reflected on the mirrors of nature; and finally to discover that nature has always mirrored the path, and that in nature the Greatness of God is hidden, reminding humanity every day the path of the return to the Origin.

Killing nature is like killing the possibility of returning to God and destroying, little by little, the thread that lets you leave illusion.

It is time, children, to live unity in life, synthesizing in the heart the essence of all impulses that generated the inspiration for the birth of all different religions and philosophies. Because, today, everything makes sense when you find unity, and the religions will no longer achieve plenitude within themselves, but all, united by Love, in God, will find the truth that will make sense and will show them the way they must follow.

With this, I tell you that the planet must find the truth, with each being in the place where it belongs. But for this, it is enough to be simple and grateful, it is enough to be fraternal and it is enough to be open to learn to Love all.

Your Father and Friend, the same Companion of always,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
