

Saturday, December 1 of 2012

WEEKLY MESSAGE,

TRANSMITTED BY THE VIRGIN MARY TO SISTER LUCÍA:

Maternal and ecumenical message for My children of the whole world

Dear children,

Today I come to each of your hearts as the Mother and Queen of all the people and all the languages. I come to unify your little hearts to My Heart as God asks Me to do day by day.

I thank you with My Love of a Mother for the sincere answer of each one of your hearts. Feel in the silence the Peace that My Immaculate Heart irradiates to you, because it is through this Peace that your hearts will find the path to fraternal union, without judgment and without differences.

Dear children, this day gives joy to My heart and seals in the universe a unique moment, even if your consciences understand so little of the Plans of God. A signal was thrown to the Infinite. A sincere answer from your hearts touches today the Kingdom of the Heavens and, your little beings will proceed in the depths of the heart in communion with Me and with the Sacred Purpose for which God has sent me. Many chains that before seemed unbreakable may be torn off, and many souls that before seemed to be untouchable may receive the Grace to listen and feel My maternal call.

My children, I need that with humility your hearts always be in unted, because this will be the only boat that will gather you all at the moment to climb to My Kingdom. In My Kingdom does not exist differences. And if some of your little hearts aspire ardently to understand My Call, they will enter into My Heart in prayer and peace. Permit yourself to enter in My Kingdom and there you can have your hearts cleaned to perceive and live the Will of the Lord, through means of My Heart.

I come today as the Queen of the Angels and of humanity, the Queen of each creature of this Universe, because it is in this way that I will unify in My arms, not only my little beings but also all beings, of all the kingdoms. From among humans and angels I shelter all in My Heart.

My beloved children, trust in My Heart because soon you could understand and live what I am asking you day by day. Each moment in which your hearts allow Me, I pour upon you a little of this Holy Spirit, that will give you eternal wisdom to act on the Earth and for all Eternity in the Heavens.

I thank you,

Maria, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity.