

Saturday, December 22, 2012

WEEKLY MESSAGE, TRANSMITTED BY THE HOLY VIRGIN MARY TO FRIAR ELÍAS

Dear and beloved children of Mine:

Today I leave to you the maternal symbol of My Mystical Rose that represents the essence of the Universal and Divine Love that I as Mother have especially for all of you.

For this reason I invite you to pray, pray so much until your lips are tired from pronouncing precious and kind words for My Heart and for the Heart of My Beloved Son. I want for you an absolute peace because as Mother I am accompanying the purifying calvary that each child is passing through in this time.

My beloved hearts, surrender your little heart so that I may guide it for the path of My Fathomless Fountain of Peace. Jesus waits for your hearts to rest without delay on His Fathomless Heart of Love because My Favorite Son knows well about your anguishes and sorrows.

But today I come here as Queen of the Heavens to remind you to live in My Peace because if you are in My Peace you will find consolation, will, love and hope for the shipwreck that many of My children are living.

All of the Great Universe contemplates the precious moment that in these days that is lived by the humanity that is awake, and the that humanity that is asleep, Your work of prayer, dear children, is attracting to Me millions of essences that were lost in this world.

Without delay have joy in your souls because the Lord recognizes the great effort of your beings. When a child of Mine escapes from My arms I remember the moment of My silent pain at the feet of the Cross. But the power of My Love overcomes the snatching away that the enemy has done to Me.

The Woman dressed with the Sun is preparing Herself to cover all of Her children with light. She came with the intention to enter into the great desert where She will protect all Her children from the wiles of the enemy.

Do not fear My little ones. Great and majestic is the maternal consolation that today My Immaculate Heart radiates to you, because My soldiers are so loved that the Lord has allowed for all of His creatures to learn and grow quickly.

For this today I call you so that you may extend your arms to Me and then again open your hearts so that My Curative and Redeeming Light can be placed in your little beings. Do not loose the future that My Heart constructed with so much happiness and bliss in your hearts. Keep each maternal moment of encounter with Me.

As Mother and Queen of all humanity I understand and accompany the steps of My children and the detours of all those that do not live the Echo of My Love.

Dear children, you have arrived to the portal of the New Universal Cycle that is being watched by all the Hosts of the Creator Father. Every path that begins again is a path that God through His children is beginning to construct through love and unity.

My children, stay in My Peace, I want that you accept My Peace in order to receive the wisdom of the Holy Spirit that many children need. Remember that I am not abandoning you because My victory will be to see each essence in Paradise. The enemy may cause you to fear but My Love will provide the power of Faith and of the future. Because, if you accept to be children of God, the Father will take in this time the harvest of all of the fruits that have grown through the following of the steps of My Heart.

Today more than ever I am with you, I pray for you, I walk together with you, I need hope from all of you so that many souls may come back to be lit up through the Love of My Immaculate Heart.

May the Christmas that is approaching bring you to adore the coming of the Little Child King of the Universe through the entering into the manger of the humility of My Maternal Heart.

Arise dear children, because Christ calls you to continue the path towards the Light of the Kingdom of God!

I adore you, I cure and I love you always.

Your Immaculate Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity.

Thank you for answering to My call!