DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF SANTA FE, ARGENTINA, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

While some souls risk their lives and their evolution for this planet, My Heart comes to protect and shelter them in this cycle of Armageddon.

Everything that you live at this moment will be part of the battle, and at the same time, of the inner preparation for what must come later to this world.

In the meantime, do not allow that your aspirations to fully serve Christ fade, do not allow that the aspiration of achieving redemption also fade.

Keep rowing together with Me until we are able to find a good port within this spiritual shipwreck that the planet is facing.

Continue to live the purification of the heart, the transcendence of the feelings that form part of the human degeneration of these times.

Whatever happens, never lose the great capacity of loving and of serving, because I assure you that someday you will be free from the ties and the chains that for centuries have imprisoned many souls.

I am with you, in the joy as well as in the tests. I am maternally inseparable from the new apostles of Christ.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who blesses you,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
