WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE LOCALITY OF LOS COCOS, CORDOBA, ARGENTINA, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

In order for you to follow the steps of Christ, I tell you: you must renounce all personal paths. The Lord will come and dictate your steps and they will not be those that you want to follow, because those, children, aggrandize your human condition and do not lead you to the Truth.

In order for you to follow the steps of Christ, I tell you: you must leave behind your aspirations, human "dreams" and human desires, to find in this way His Divine, Perfect and unique Will for your lives.

In order for you to find the Path of Christ, I tell you: you must close your eyes to the covetousness of the life of others, and you will no longer wish to live as "this one" or "that one", because for each being, the Divine Thought is unique, and each of His children must seek what belongs to them and long for nothing else but the Divine Will for themselves.

In order for you to find the Truth of Christ, I tell you: you must renounce all vain knowledge, all unmeasured searches to aggrandize your minds and spiritual egos with half-truths and many vanities. A large part of humanity, children, would need "the science of knowing nothing" to reach the true essence of Divine Knowledge. While they seek and seek, drink and feast at false sources, they will never give space within for what is True and Pure, and that quenches and ceases this unmeasured thirst for what is not real.

In order for you to be in the Love of Christ, I tell you: you must renounce all vain love, especially of yourselves; that which you called love, and that I call vanity and zeal for ignorance and for illusion. Because that one who feeds the love of their own image and the things of this world does nothing but watch over their condition of ignorance.

In order for you to find the Silence of Christ, I tell you: you must become silent within, in the depths of the heart, and seek that union more in solitude than in appearance; more in actions than in words; more in Truth than in spiritual ignorance.

If you are tired of yourselves and want to the point at which you are at, I tell you: love and in all things seek to love. Have your actions be moved by love, corrected by love, and reflected with love when you make a mistake. Have your word and thought be born from love, and even though you feel that you do not have what to love, love God, His Plan and in Him you will love all things.

Human lack, children, is not of knowledge, of Graces, of opportunities, of possibilities, of open paths...What is lacking is the will, the will to love, and true love that multiplies and never ceases in the heart that loves.

Your healing is to be found in the art of loving and giving love. In this way, you will find the steps of Christ, the Truth of Christ, the Path of Christ, the Doorway to Christ, the Eyes of Christ, when He returns to the world, and His Word which will say to you, with Truth and Power: "My companions".

Your Father and Friend
