

Wednesday, January 23, 2013

MESSAGE OF THE VIRGIN MARY,

TRANSMITTED TO MOTHER SHIMANI:

Dear daughter, dear son.

Again I am with you to comfort you in this choice that you have made, which is to live for and to serve My Beloved Son.

I bring for you the remembrance of my different passages in your life and the experience of the love from other times that left an indelible footprint on humanity.

As the Lady of the Graces today I want to reveal that My presence in your lives has brought the Blessed Graces that from Heaven our Father God has given Me for you. Through these Graces many of you have renewed your faith and have surrendered your lives to God. Through these Graces is lost the indifference and the pain that was produced from being far away from Him.

As the Lady of the Graces I have filled the hearts of many that today adore Me, love Me and follow Me. As the Lady of the Graces I am separating you from evil and I am bringing peace and comfort to your lives.

Today as the Lady of Graces I want to ask you to help Me to bring these Graces from the Heavens to those who are lost, for those that are indifferent, for those that are day by day separated from the heart of My Son.

As the Lady of the Graces today I bring from Heaven the Blessed Light of the Heart of Christ so that your hearts may be illuminated in this end of the cycle for humanity.

It is with this face of the Lady of the Graces that I invite you to walk a new path together with Me and My Son, so that all of humanity may be prepared to receive us in this new time, where we will finally discover the mysteries that God has guarded about His Messengers for always.

Each day I will remind you how many times I have visited you in many forms and in many places so that you will begin to understand that always I have been the same Messenger of the Highest who has been with you realizing distant tasks in distant places in different times.

Today it is time for you to feel Me and to receive Me as the Mother of all humanity, of all creeds and religions, of all races, of all of My children.

I came to gather all those that are preparing themselves, in the whole world, to receive the Great Shepherd who will come to quench the thirst of all and free them with His Forgiveness and His Mercy, from mistakes, loneliness and suffering.

Open your hearts to receive this great grace, to receive the Mother of the World, the Mother of all people and of all religions.

I will accompany you, I will guard you and I will conduct you to the Redeemer, who comes to free from oppression, from suffering and from ignorance all people, all races and all religions.

He is the Savior, the one who is not awaited by everyone, the one that will come as a thief in the night when the world that is far away from God is least expecting Him.

To you My children, those that yet are waiting for Him, I ask you to pray for those that do not, so that those closed hearts may reach the same Grace as you, to see the Redeemer face to face and surrender themselves to His Feet of Glory.

Praised be My Son, the Savior.

I love you with fondness.

Mary, your Lady of the Graces