

Friday, November 30 of 2012

MESSAGE FOR THE APPARITION IN PORTO ALEGRE, BRAZIL,

TRANSMITTED BY THE VIRGIN MARY TO SISTER LUCIA:

Dear children:

Today I come to thank you for each day in which your little hearts confirm the union with My Heart. It will be through the unbreakable union with Me that your beings will find support, that your souls and your spirits will find the food that will fill them. I am the Spirit of God sent to nourish His children with Peace.

Strengthen each day the union with Me, persist on the path of prayer and of peace. It will be a full peace reached by you that will show you a new path, when your eyes are unable to find the exit. This peace, dears, will kindle the inner light of each being and will be the secure bridge in the direction of God. Walk by the path of peace to find the secure dwelling that is within your beings, in the depths of your hearts, and it is there where is waiting for you with patience and love, My Son, the Redeemer of all souls.

Beloved children, search inside of each one of your hearts for My Son Jesus, who has initiated His return. Open the doors of the heart because it is there first that He will arrive. In a few hearts Christ already has made His dwelling, in many others he waits outside observing a great door that is found to be closed.

My children, it is through this inner strength of each one of you that Christ will find the path of His return. But if each heart does not build this path, how could He arrive?

This majestic visitor must be invited by your souls to make the eternal dwelling in your hearts. Say a simple "yes" to the Merciful Heart of Christ and He will hear you.

Elevate with sincerity your hearts to the Most Sacred Heart of Christ and He will feel it.

He will clean with His own hands those dwellings that will be offered to Him because so great is the will of the Lord to be close to His flock that He does not mind to do this.

Dear children My heart today speaks with you with the simplicity of the Heart of Mary. I am the same Nazarene. And with the same Love that I prepared the Heart of the child Jesus to receive the Spirit of God, which will live there for all eternity, I come today to prepare your hearts to receive the Master of the Universe. He knows each one of His sheep and he wishes to gather all of His flock into one sacred flock that will follow His steps to the Shepherd.

Dears, the sheep of today will be the shepherds of tomorrow. Who today follows My Son as loyal sheep of His flock tomorrow will walk at His side conducting another flock.

For this, walk in Glory to God and to His Son. Build in prayer His path of return, say to Him "yes" and He will soon arrive.

I thank you with a maternal and infinite Love.

Mary, Mother of the Divine Conception of the Trinity.