

Friday, March 8, 2013

DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO FRIAR ELÍAS

My dears:

Not even at the times of the battles will My Merciful Heart separate itself from you, from your little essences.

For this in joy, and in this day of the new reparation, I call you to the deep prayer that is born from the soul and that contemplates the compassion of God because, above all things, My Heart conducts you and gathers you in the name of Peace and of Light.

I accompany this end of time from up close. My eyes observe the gazes of the souls in desolation and lack of faith.

I ask you, My dear friends: go to all of them by means of the powerful impetus that the prayer made with the heart cultivates. Dears, My Soul will be part of your soul, My Blood will be part of your blood, My Water will be part of your water just by opening the doors to other children. I am with you and I vigil all of the flocks, even more those that recently awake to the true presence of My Heart.

Under the Merciful Love of the Father, be blessed missionaries of peace.

Thank you for venerating My words with the heart!

Christ Jesus.