WEEKLY MESSAGE OF SAINT JOSEPH, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

Child, at the doorway of a last and definite cycle for humanity, cry out for mercy and discernment, so that your steps may be right, and the path chosen by you always take you to the Heart of God.

At the doorway of a last and definite cycle for humanity, let yourself be flooded by the Humility that comes from the Heart of God.

Your Lord is already beginning to take the first steps towards the Earth and it will not be the gold of the world that will make you shine before the Eyes of God, for Him to find you. It will be the pearl revealed in your heart, when you clean and purify the mud of your miseries, that, for God will be the sign and the seal so that He may find the redeemed-on Earth.

At the doorway of a last and definite cycle for humanity, do not let the shame and fear of seeing yourself humiliated be greater than the Grace of achieving humility. Let yourself be stripped away of the things of the world and let them only belong to its vanities.

The day will come in which God will seek to receive from you the multiplication of the treasures given to you, but if you have not known them, how will you come to multiply them?

God did not give you the riches of the Earth, but rather the virtues hidden in the heart, sometimes even covered over by skills and good appearances, but those are really not what your Creator expects from you.

At the doorway of a last and definite cycle for humanity, search in your heart for the greater virtue of giving up, the treasure of faith, the richness of charity, the joy of surrender. Heaven and Earth will pass, but what God placed inside of you will multiply.

Surrender yourself up, as God gave Himself up, becoming a child in the arms of the Most Holy Mary,

Surrender yourself up, as the Creator did, escaping death and going to Egypt, in profound abandonment in the hands of His Holy Children, made His Parents there.

Surrender yourself up, in the silence of God, denied on the Earth He had chosen to sanctify, walking towards distant peoples who would know how to listen to Him.

Surrender yourself, as God Who knows how to forgive, Who casts the stones of men's sins upon the ground and does not cast upon them anything but Forgiveness and Mercy.

Surrender yourself, as Christ did, Who - being perfect - sat at the table of sinners, and inviting them as they were, forgave them and redeemed their sins.

Surrender yourself up and transform the loneliness, the sacrifice and the pain of the cross into a real and perfect love that crosses and transforms the universes.

Surrender yourself, as God surrendered Himself to death, but also surrendered Himself to the mystery of faith, that gives life back and resurrects with the One Who died for you, Who lives today to teach you to return to life.

At the doorway of a last and definite cycle for humanity, child, give yourself up and do not judge any longer, do not criticize, do not defame, do not pretend and do not sin any longer.

Your Father and Friend,

The Most Chaste Saint Joseph
