

Thursday, January 25, 2018

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF AURORA, PAYSANDU, URUGUAY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN

The Last Covenant

My time among you is already ending and when that happens the Almighty Lord will test your faith to know if you have in truth communed with the Word of God.

My time among you is already ending and when that happens it will be the culminating moment in which the Sun will set, and the Red Moon will rise, which will announce the last and awaited cycle.

My time among you is already ending and when that happens it will be the moment in which your love must be expanding in all directions; it will be the moment in which your service and your sacrifice for humanity must be greater in order to congregate the souls that are thirsty in the search for God.

My time among you is already ending and when that happens the Mother of God will retreat into the desert, expecting the great and last abyss to open, a moment in which the Universal Judgement will have begun.

But all those sealed with the sign of Christic Love will be protected, and even though the world is in its greatest purification, peace will not be lacking in these hearts; nothing and no one will be able to change it, because it will be a peace that will come from the immaterial spirit of each being.

My time among you is already ending and when that happens you must bear witness and defend from yourselves everything you have lived with Me because this will awaken faith in atheists and in those who guide the nations of the world. The faith of the witnesses of Mary will allow many uncertain doors to be closed and the last Grace of salvation will be given for all.

My time among you is already ending and this dictation is not only words; when this happens, you must have My Work of Peace move forward in the world, and you must not stop nor retreat. May your faith be neither poor nor oscillating.

On the contrary, children, when I Am no longer among you, all the treasures of instruction must be awakened and active within each of you.

My time among you is already ending and when this happens you will see the sign of the Universe approach the Earth; it will be an indescribable and unknown phenomenon; this will be the moment of the great planetary redemption.

My time among you is already ending and nothing will stop it, because as it was written, it will be fulfilled. The Word of God is a living Source and from it comes all the Graces for those who have faith in what We say and announce.

When My time with you ends, the Real Time will open, and all will be consummated, because the Master and Lord will have arrived to clean the Earth and sow new principles that will be light and love for the New Humanity.

My time among you is already ending and when this happens, all will change, and you will see colonies of salvation and refuge rise in some nations during the time of Armageddon.

Before My time ends, you must be confirmed in your fidelity to Creation, and the unbreakable unity among your hearts and lives will defeat the final beast.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who blesses you,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace