

Wednesday, April 3 of 2013

MESSAGE BY THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, TRANSMITTED TO MOTHER SHIMANI IN THE CITY OF RECIFE, PERNAMBUCO, BRAZIL

My beloved children from Recife:

I have come until here so that your souls may return to the path of devotion towards My Immaculate Heart and towards the Most Sacred Heart of Christ Jesus.

I have passed through other spaces of this blessed country and I have found hearts thirsty for peace and for the possibility of reconciling themselves with God the Creator.

I come from the Heavens, from the Celestial Kingdom to give you My maternal love, My help, so that you may be able to return to the path that will save you.

I Am your Mother, your Protector, your Intercessor before My Son and before the Supreme God, and through My Love I want that you will trust in what I want to give you.

I have come to tell you that it is already the time of the conversion, so that before the return of My Son all of you may have your souls prepared to receive Him.

This world walks through paths where humanity loses, day by day, the contact with the spirit immersed in the dizziness of modernity.

Dear children: How long has it been since you were in true peace? How long has it been since your consciousnesses have not felt themselves as part of the universe that the Creator designed for His Creatures?

How much transgression! How many faults towards the planet!

Dear children: what will be of this humanity if you do not repair the Heart of My Son, and the Heart of God?

Let us pray, dear children, for all of those who day by day forget those who suffer, of those who clamor for love, of those who lose themselves.

Let us pray for all of those who deny the Creator of all things.

Let us pray and let us never stop praying to be able to balance the faults of this world in this time.

I count on all of My beloved Marian soldiers.

I love you and I conduct you to the Heart of the Redeemer.

Thank you for being with Me today.

Mary, Queen of Peace.