

Monday, May 21, 2018

DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED IN THE MARIAN CENTER OF FIGUEIRA, MINAS GERAIS, BRAZIL, TO THE VISIONARY SISTER LUCÍA DE JESÚS

To be living witnesses of the Presence of God

My Children,

Today I call you to be living witnesses of the Presence of God among men.

That your lives speak to the world and that your examples make those who find you seek peace and ask themselves what they are doing in their own lives.

In order to be living witnesses of the Presence of God on Earth, you must first purify your hearts of all stain, of all criticism, of all lack of unity with others and with God.

In order to be living witnesses of the Presence of God among men, you must assume a path of prayer and of service, wherever you are. You already know that you can make of your lives an eternal act of service at every instant.

In order to be living witnesses of the Presence of God among men, you must learn to forgive others and yourselves and to open yourselves to understand the weaknesses of others, always putting yourselves in the place of others, to then understand their feelings and thoughts.

To be living witnesses of the Presence of God in the world, you must lose the shame and fear of being true and transparent every day, live your faith and be simple before the judgment of men.

In order to be living witnesses of the Presence of God in the world, you must be willing to purify your own will, your own dominion and power over others and over everything.

In order to be living witnesses of the Presence of God in the world, you must make the difference among men, willing to surrender what humanity always aspires to aggrandize; willing to be humble and silent; willing to be anonymous and in solitude, even though, My children, God puts you in the midst of multitudes.

You must never lose the thirst of being alone with God, because only those who know how to be in silence with the Father will know how to speak publicly in His Name.

Today, beloved children, I call you to one step more than the apostolate; I call you to surrender your lives to God as living witnesses of His Presence in the world.

It is time to announce, and this is done with the example that echoes beyond words and pierces the layers of mind to reach the heart and there perpetuate itself.

Today I call you to be witnesses of the last times, the saints of the last days, because to balance what is happening in the world at this moment it is necessary, children, to renew the apostolate, renew the spirit of the Gospel with life and become true disciples of Christ, as He needs you.

In this day of special blessing and infinite Graces that your Heavenly Mother pours out from the Seventh Heaven and beyond, I call you to be those who will offer their own destiny to God, who will follow His Steps in an unconditional way and who will overcome fear, transcending it in the power of the Love of Christ.

Today I call you to be living witnesses of the Presence of God in the world and, if you cannot do it, to pray for those who will surrender their souls at the Feet of the Creator, asking Him at every instant of their lives: Lord and God, what do you need from me today?

Pray for those who will surrender their hearts to God and, will fervently witness His Presence in the world, and be part of the apostolate of these times.

My children, the world needs palpable examples and true surrender, therefore renew your surrender to the Father every day, and seek a way to make it more transparent each time.

Today, children, I will ask you to pray fervently for those who have been called to surrender their lives to God and who, without understanding and without knowing, have become His living witnesses for these times.

Pray so that the instruments of the Father persevere to the end, because the surrender of a few will bring merit for the salvation of all.

Pray so that the Graces multiply, and Mercy finds space to pour out into the world.

And finally pray so that there will be new and eternal witnesses of God's Presence among His children.

I thank you for responding to My call and I bless you.

And on this day, in a special way, I bless My beloved son who, surrendering his heart to the Father, allowed the Creator to make of his existence a living testimony of the Presence of God in the world.

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace