DAILY MESSAGE OF CHRIST JESUS, TRANSMITTED TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS

My dears:

Today I come as the Fisher of souls so that, recognizing My Face in the world you may be served of My favorite Love to diffuse My savior Message in this world.

I know that many seem to be tired of walking towards the infinite that never ends. I tell you that in love you may carry lovingly the cross that My Kingdom hands to you and that you may be thankful for receiving in My Name the rays of redemption and of conversion.

I ask you that you do not lower the arms but that you open your hearts to receive My Commandments, those which will order for you the life in spirit and in service. Dear companions:

The tasks of the servers for the end of times are blessed with the possibility of the awakening of more hearts to the path of redemption and of forgiveness. Know that it will be through those who are willing to serve Me until the limit that My Redeemer Plan in the world will be fulfilled, and this will be before My Return to the suffered world.

Your essences must be like flowers in My Hands so that My Spirit may be able to present them as an offer of redemption before God. You are with Me whenever you say yes and I will be for longer time whenever you simply open to Me the door of the heart.

Come and walk with Me because I will always protect you and guide you.

I thank all of those who serve Me without delay and who donate to Me the time for the Greater Work.

Under the Love of the Father, be merciful.

Thank you for receiving My words in the heart!

Christ Jesus, the Savior and Lord of the souls.
