DAILY MESSAGE OF MARY, ROSE OF PEACE, TRANSMITTED IN THE CITY OF COLOGNE, GERMANY, TO THE VISIONARY FRIAR ELÍAS DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS

I attract the souls of the world to My Heart so that, regardless of their race, religion or nation, they may feel the confidence to enter the spiritual universe of My Heart.

This is the reason why your Heavenly Mother and Virgin of Schoenstatt will descend today in Cologne and consequently, over the whole Germany so that, after the profound spiritual and redeeming task fulfilled yesterday by My Son, My children of Germany may receive a new spiritual impulse to prepare them for a new stage.

Children, the meetings here, in Germany, had not been foreseen, they emerged in an unexpected manner, and this attracted towards this suffering nation the atoning Grace of being able to receive the true Attributes of the Celestial Father, which will reconfigure the essence of the race that is to be found here, as well as its original purpose.

All this is possible simply when souls open their hearts to welcome, immediately, the Divine Will of the Eternal Father. And when this Divine Will is fulfilled and manifested on the surface of the Earth, many more souls see themselves benefitted by a Grace they did not expect, and that they did not deserve to receive.

To respond to the call of love and redemption announced by the Sacred Hearts generates great and victorious opportunities for those who, in this critical time that the race goes through, will have to awaken to the Truth that for such long time they have been seeking within themselves and did not find.

This is the spiritual and divine reason why the Messengers of God descend with the Light of the Kingdom of the Heavens to the Earth, so that each soul, regardless of its belief, race or nation, may have the Grace of knowing within itself what it has come to do in this world, so that it can finally fulfill it.

Germany needs determined groups of prayer so that souls can abandon the hypnotism of these times, a path that leads them to perdition and to submerge themselves in the illusions.

For this reason, the Mother of the Redeemer and Lord of the Universe arrives today in the city of Cologne to give and deliver to you the first impulse that will be able to open new paths of redemption and light for the souls of Germany and Europe.

Today I give you the impulse, by means of My Presence, to assume a new stage, so that this new experience may have repercussions in all of Europe.

I thank you for responding to My call!

Who blesses you,

Your Mother Mary, Rose of Peace
